Bunin,1989 The Gentleman from San Francisco David Richards,Ivan Bunin,Sophie Lund,1992-03-26 A much neglected literary figure Ivan Bunin is one of Russia's major writers and ranks with Tolstoy and Chekhov at the forefront of the Russian Realists Drawing artistic inspiration from his personal experience these powerful evocative stories are set in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century Russia of his youth in the countries that he visited and in France where he spent the last thirty years of his life In the title story for example a family's tour of fashionable European resorts comes to an unexpected end Late Hour describes an old man's return to the little Russian town in the steppes that he has not seen since his early youth while Mitya's Love explores the darker emotional reverberations of sexual experience Throughout his stories there is a sense of the precariousness of existence an omnipresent awareness of the impermanence of human aspirations and achievements The Liberation of Tolstoy Ivan Alekseevich Bunin,2001 This work equal parts biography memoir and literary study examines the dialogue of two great Russian writers The dialogue between them includes passages from Tolstoy's personal political and literary writings and references to Western and Eastern philosophers religious thinkers and critics

on Bunin the neglected master of Russian letters Thomas Marullo recreates his life in exile chiefly in Paris after escaping from his newly bolshevized country in 1920 Drawing from Bunin s correspondence his diaries and his stories and translating most of these materials into English for the first time Mr Marullo gives us a vivid picture of a man suddenly and agonizingly without a country Bunin s life and art which depended so heavily on traditional Russian values seemed to be overthrown in a moment and the writer found himself marooned amidst Western culture clinging to his old ideals Through his writings we are also provided a window on the lively but despairing and often fractious community of Russian emigr s in Paris in the twenties which included Stravinsky Rachmaninoff Chafiapin Prokofiev Chagall Kandinsky Pavlova Diaghilev and Zamyatin The volume ends in 1933 when Bunin became the first Russian to receive the Nobel Prize in literature Mr Marullo s first volume Ivan Bunin Russian Requiem was widely acclaimed Gary Saul Morson of Northwestern wrote It engages the reader from the first page Marullo has an eye for the perfect quotation Ruth Rischin in the Russian Review described the book as elegantly crafted a serious achievement

In a Far Distant Land Иван Алексеевич Бунин,1983 The publication of this collection of stories by the great 20th century Russian writer marked the 30th anniversary of his death and the 50th anniversary of his Nobel Prize 1933 Most of the stories have not been previously published in English or were published in translations from texts not revised by the author for final publication The love death theme was one of the criteria for the selection of titles and Sobranie sochineny 9 vol Moscow 1965 67 was the Russian source for all translations

Collected Stories of Ivan Bunin Ivan Bunin,2023-11-14 The Gentleman from San Francisco is easily the best known of Ivan Bunin s stories and has achieved the stature of a masterpiece But Bunin s other stories and novellas are not to be missed Over the last several years a great many of them have been freshly and brilliantly translated by Graham Hettlinger Together along with four new pieces they are now published in a one volume paperback collection of Bunin s greatest writings In Mr Hettlinger s renderings readers will see why Bunin was regarded by many of his contemporaries as the rightful successor to Tolstoy and Chekhov as a master of Russian letters

If You See the Buddha Thomas Gaiton Marullo,1998 This study establishes Bunin as a modern writer whose images were thoroughly rooted in the 20th century and shows that Bunin s interest in Buddhism was a major influence on his writing
