Student A
I wasn't a very motivated student when I was younger, so I failed my exams in 2009 and had to retake them the following summer. I'd already decided I wanted to take a gap year then go to business school, so this time I completed all the coursework and revised thoroughly. I passed easily. I spent a year abroad as an assistant in a secondary school and then went to business school - I'd already applied and successfully attended an interview before revising my exams.

In my second year as an undergraduate, I spent a semester as an intern at Hewlett Packard, which was very rewarding. In fact, after I graduated into a job at HP after I graduated the following June. They encouraged me to do a Master's degree by correspondence - I just have to finish writing a dissertation. I need a break now, but I may take a sabbatical to study for an MBA in a few years' time.

I wasn't a very motivated student when I was younger, so I had to retake my exams in 2009 after I failed them the year before. I'd already decided that before going to business school I wanted to take a gap year. I passed easily because this time I completed all the coursework and revised thoroughly. I'd already applied and successfully attended an interview at a business school, so after revising my exams I spent a year abroad as an assistant in a secondary school.

I spent a semester as an intern at Hewlett Packard in my second year as an undergraduate, which was very rewarding. In fact, after I graduated the following June I went straight into a job at HP. I'm now writing a dissertation for a Master's degree by correspondence which HP encouraged me to do. I may take a sabbatical to study for an MBA in a few years' time, but I need a break first.

Problem: Started up successful electronics company. Resigned when he disagreed with his CEO. Sell shares? What next?	Problem: Previously worked as researcher, teacher then secretary. Fired for writing stories at work. Do creative writing course, or look for another job?	Problem: Designed and sold product to local govt. when in high school. Drop out of prestigious business school to start own business?

1.3 Grammar Tense review

When I left school I wasn't sure what to do next. I had applied for a place at university, but while I was revising for my exams I had already decided that I didn't feel ready for university. I had read a lot about East Africa, and one day when I was watching a TV documentary about Ethiopia, I suddenly knew that was where I was going. In fact it was while I was working with an NGO in Ethiopia that I became interested in business.

2 You see, if I make a commitment, I do my best to respect it.
3 If by any chance the job were based in Kenya, I would take it anyway, even though I'd prefer to use my Amharic.

In the short term, I hope (1) I'll become a department manager quite quickly. I've been a lot about research on the MBA, and (2) I'm going to put the theory into practice as soon as I can. On the personal front, (3) I'm getting married next June; over the next couple of years my fiancé (4) is going to write TV and movie scripts, so (5) he is going to be totally mobile and happy to move as necessary.

Enjoying the Song of Term: An Emotional Symphony within Chapter By Answer Key

In a world used by screens and the ceaseless chatter of immediate connection, the melodic splendor and psychological symphony created by the written term often disappear in to the back ground, eclipsed by the persistent noise and disturbances that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, set within the pages of Chapter By Answer Key a marvelous fictional prize filled with organic thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an elegant musician of language, that charming masterpiece conducts readers on a mental trip, skillfully unraveling the hidden tunes and profound affect resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of the poignant assessment, we can examine the book is main harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing model, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
