The Philosophy of Education and Work Denise N. Fyffe, 2015-06-13 With education and work being two chief and influential elements in modern society it is important to understand and explore their purpose contributions and how they are impacted by other factors such as gender It is the task of Philosophy to investigate these all important questions as it is a field of study in which people question and create theories about the nature of reality Philosophers concern themselves with more than just the fundamental and mysterious topics as whether or not God's exist The fundamental method of western philosophy is the use of reasoning to evaluate arguments As such this book takes a philosophical approach to examining these areas by including arguments from philosophers such as Plato Aristotle Augustine Thomas Aquinas John Dewey Soren Aabye Kierkegaard and Jean Paul Sartre who have all explored the topic of education and work

The Principalship Frederick C. Lunenburg, Beverly J. Irby, 2022-08-04 Today's emphasis on student learning outcomes coupled with federal legislation to that end has placed more demands on the role of the principal than ever before in our nation's history To address the heightened demands for greater accountability for student learning The Principalship uses a learning centered approach one that emphasizes the role of the principal as the steward of the school's vision learning for all The critical aspects of the teaching learning process are addressed here including student motivation individual differences classroom management assessing student learning and developing maintaining and changing school culture In addition several topics not found in other principalship texts are addressed including school safety special education gifted education bilingual education nontraditional organizational structures gender inclusive theories diversity ethics political and policy context human resource management legal issues and collective bargaining The book is documented extensively throughout and grounded in the latest research and theory with suggestions for applying theory to practice reflecting cutting edge research and topical issues facing principals in schools today Advancing Islāmic Psychology Education G. Hussein Rassool,2023-07-20

This book provides academic and clinical institutions for developing their educational programmes in psychology psychotherapy and counselling from an Isl mic paradigm Examining the educational approach in the decolonisation of psychology curricula the book proposes a vertically and horizontally integrated embedded curriculum model This model meets the changing needs of practitioners incorporating indigenous cultural aspects and emerging technologies to reflect new and creative ways of thinking about delivering education in the post Covid 19 era The chapters also demonstrate how curriculum development based on the principles of Islamic education helps institutions to establish purpose define activities and guide decision making in educational development A series of steps for implementing this need driven educational programme has been suggested This practical concise and evidenced based text will be a key resource for educators and trainers It will help them understand how to re design or suggest changes to curriculum structure shape and content in Isl mic psychology psychotherapy and counselling for undergraduate postgraduate and continuing professional development levels of education Integrating Work in Theological Education Kathleen A. Cahalan,Edward Foley,Gordon S.

Mikoski,2017-03-09 If only we could do a better job of helping students at connecting the dots theological educators commonly lament Integration often proposed as a solution to the woes of professional education for ministry would help students integrate knowledge skills spirituality and integrity When these remain disconnected incompetence ensues and the cost runs high for churches denominations and ministers themselves However we fail in thinking that integrating work is for students alone It is a multifaceted constructive process of learning that is contextual reflective and dialogical It aims toward important ends competent leaders who can guide Christian communities today It entails rhythms not stages and dynamic movement including disintegration Integrating work is learning in motion across domains and among and between persons It is social and communal born of a life of learning together for faculty staff administrators and students It is work that bridges the long standing gaps between school ministry practice and life It s a verb not a noun Here a diverse group of theological educators through descriptive case studies theological reflection and theory building offer a distinctive contribution to understanding integrating work and how best to achieve it across three domains in community curriculums and courses

The Presidential Commission of Inquiry Into Education and Training (Nziramanga Commission) Manasa M. Madondo, Godfrey Museka, Morrin Phiri, 2014 A Philosophical Guide for Decision Making by Educators Robert D. Heslep, 2002 After a critical discussion of several current positions in educational philosophy the book focuses on communication reason and voluntary action as sources of principles that are integral to philosophy and education The work applies its foundational principles in two ways It shows how they compare with the educational views of Social Constructivism and of Critical Theory It also devotes a chapter length discussion to several curricular topics likely to be facing educators in the future higher order thinking skills multicultural education and higher technology

Curriculum + New Myedleadershiplab With Pearson Etext Access Card Allan C. Ornstein, Francis P. Hunkins, 2012-04-17 Educational Research Quarterly, 2005 Democracy and Intolerance Frances R. A. Paterson, 2003 Frances R A Paterson provides a thought provoking and timely study of the contents of textbooks published specifically for private Christian schools She draws connections between the textbooks content and the religious social and political agendas of the Religious Right The secularization of the public schools has stimulated the rise of Christian schools and home schooling based on conservative religious and political views Such schools are a growing force in American education In some ways the emergence of these conservative religious political education alternatives mirrors the 19th century rise of the common school and diminished influence of church schools In the 21st century it is public schools that are in danger of being disestablished Back cover

Counselor Education and Supervision, 1997 Selected Models of Developmental Education Programs in Higher Education Vernon L. Farmer, Wilton A. Barham, 2001-04-11 Selected Models of Developmental Education Programs in Higher Education includes models that are based on defensible theories about how students grow and develop at all levels of the learning continuum These models emphasize the theories and concepts that underlie developmental education as a field of practice and research with a theoretical foundation in developmental psychology and learning theory The theory based models consist of methods and techniques for implementing developmental education activities and ways of creating environments intended to improve developmental students learning outcomes These models include a rationale a theory that justifies the models and an explanation of how the models are designed The rationale is supported by empirical evidence that the models work These models were selected because they represent varied frames of reference toward educational goals and objectives Therefore this book is a valuable resource for scholars researchers educators and practitioners seeking to improve developmental students learning outcomes in developmental education programs in institutions of higher education
