Learning and Teaching from Experience Lía D. Kamhi-Stein, 2007 The majority of teachers of English to speakers of other languages around the world are nonnative speakers of English themselves Learning and Teaching from Experience presents a wide range of views on NNES nonnative English speaking professionals in ESL and EFL settings at various academic levels including K-12, adult education, community college and university This informative volume is divided into the sections focusing on theoretical underpinnings, research, teacher preparation and classroom application specific to issues facing NNES professionals Learning and Teaching from Experience is also one of the first volumes to present work by the founding members of the caucus for nonnative English speakers in the national TESOL professional association who are rightly considered to be experts in the field This book will surely interest NNES teachers and researchers as well as teacher educators and their trainees in the United States and abroad

Technology to Teach Literacy Rebecca S. Anderson, Michael M. Grant, Bruce W. Speck, 2008 Technology to Teach Literacy: A Resource for K-8 Teachers second edition is designed to provide teachers with an array of computer tools to promote reading, writing and critical thinking in their classrooms This text can be used not only in a preservice course but also by seasoned teachers who recognize the need to continue their education by becoming adept at using computers in their classrooms In short this book covers the major concerns K-8 teachers face as they integrate computer technology into their classrooms and provides numerous suggestions for applying the ideas described in the text in real classrooms The discussion of literacy topics and pedagogy is grounded in research literature, best practice for teaching and current successful technology integration strategies Publisher description 120 Content Strategies for English Language Learners Jodi Reiss,2012 Provides 120 easy to follow strategies that examines different aspects of teaching ELL secondary students from building background knowledge to assessing learning Explores methods of presenting basic information about types of tests demonstrates test taking skills and discusses the use of accommodations Each chapter contains a summary and discussion questions Using Technology in K-8 Literacy Classrooms Rebecca S. Anderson,Bruce W. Speck,2001 A basic field guide format introduces 13 wild cat species Includes photographs and range maps The CATESOL Journal ,1999 International Studies Review ,1999 Interpersonal Dynamics in Second Language Education Madeline E. Ehrman,Zoltan Dornyei,1998-08-04 Until now relatively little research on interpersonal processes and group dynamics addressed the educational domain particularly second language education This book fills the gap by synthesizing diverse aspects of interpersonal and group psychology and exploring conscious and unconscious processes that affect learning and teaching Drawing on humanistic social and clinical psychology it addresses unconscious communication among people group development class climate psychological characteristics of effective classroom groups leadership roles interpersonal attraction and conflicts and the relationship of these to learner autonomy and collaborative learning The authors examine the contributions of the mental health branches of counseling and clinical psychology to our understanding of how teachers learners and a variety of figures who many never enter the classroom interact with each other to make second language learning more or less effective In particular the authors show how the unconscious scripts can cause unproductive conflict demotivation and eventual aversion to language learning Moreover the text shows how learning can be facilitated by appropriate use of interpersonal dynamics Due to its interdisciplinary nature this book will be of interest to teacher educators and practicing teachers researchers undergraduate and graduate students school administrators and supervisors of educational programs and many learners themselves In addition since the main focus of the book is the affective foundation of the teaching learning process this material will be relevant to non language teachers and clinical practitioners interested in educational issues as well as graduate students in training for those professions
