Think With Socrates An Introduction To Critical Thinking:

Think with Socrates Paul Herrick, 2015 Brief yet comprehensive Think with Socrates An Introduction to Critical Thinking uses the methods ideas and life of Socrates as a model for critical thinking It offers a more philosophical historical and accessible introduction than longer textbooks while still addressing all of the key topics in logic and argumentation Applying critical thinking to the Internet mass media advertising personal experience expert authority the evaluation of sources writing argumentative essays and forming a worldview Think with Socrates resonates with today s students and teaches them how to apply critical thinking in the real world At the same time it covers the ancient intellectual roots and history of the field placing critical thinking in its larger context to help students appreciate its perennial value Author Paul Herrick incorporates original sources from newspapers a variety of media and philosophical writing along with engaging interludes featuring selections from Plato s dialogues A Companion Website at www.oup.com/us/herrick offers resources for students and instructors

Teaching for Christian Wisdom Samy Estafanos, 2018-08-20 In many ways Christian education in the Presbyterian Church in Egypt was deeply influenced by public education in Egypt One of the negative consequences of such influence is the significant lack of developing and using critical thinking as a basic element of the process While multiple factors educational and theological contribute to forming it this problem manifests itself in many ways The present research deals with the lack of critical thinking as a central problematic reality of the Christian education process in the Presbyterian Church in Egypt In order to illuminate and address this problematic situation Richard Osmer s understanding of Christian education as practical theology is used to bring into dialogue American philosopher psychologist and educator John Dewey and reformer and theologian John Calvin In light of this dialogue not only the lack of critical thinking but also multiple other dimensions of the problematic situation of Christian education in the Presbyterian Church in Egypt are illuminated Lack of democracy lack of the use of experience lack of creative pedagogies lack of practical reason and lack of theology from the process are some of these dimensions Adapting Osmer s comprehensive approach to Christian education as practical theology Samy Estafanos proposes a holistic approach towards Christian education that aims at transforming education into a reconciling process
