developments from different fields within the concepts of chaos and complexity theory Researchers and students in the field will find answers to questions surrounding these intertwined and compelling fields

Religious Language and Critical Discourse Analysis Noel Heather,2000 This book demonstrates the highly productive effects of applying contemporary views of discourse to religious language seen in theological terms from a postliberal viewpoint The emphasis is on critical discourse analysis CDA with its well developed methodology for deconstructing the manifestations of power What emerges is a combination of two complementary surprisingly simple models which explain many aspects of the language used and witnessed by contemporary Christian believers A wide variety of detailed worked examples provide a very practical introduction to the revealing practice of understanding how discourse analysis responds to the question When language is used in a religious context what is going on here

Contrastive Analysis of News Text Types in Russian, British and American Business Online and Print Media Anastasiya Kornetzki,2012-03-01 This book is devoted to the analysis of cross media and cross cultural peculiarities of Russian British and American media discourse from the intertextual perspective The study of a complex variety of intertextual links which exist between texts and genres is a contemporary aspect in the theory of intertextuality There are numerous theoretical approaches in the study of intertextuality but there is a lack of an empirically profound framework for its analysis across many disciplines An interdisciplinary approach to the study of intertextuality is a necessary step to investigate this phenomenon comprehensively This book offers an alternative approach to the study of intertextuality singling out intra textual textual and inter genre levels on which this phenomenon comes to the fore

BOOK JACKET

Discourse in Late Modernity Lilie Chouliaraki,Norman Fairclough,1999 Discourse in Late Modernity sets out to show that critical discourse analysis is strongly positioned to address empirical research and theory building across the social sciences particularly research and theory on the semiotic linguistic aspects of the social world It situates critical discourse analysis as a form of critical social research in relation to diverse theories from the philosophy of science to social theory and from political science to sociology and linguistics First the authors clarify the ontological and epistemological assumptions of critical discourse analysis its view of what the social world consists of and how to study it and in so doing point to the connections between critical discourse analysis and critical social scientific research more generally Secondly they relate critical discourse analysis to social theory by creating a research agenda in contemporary social life on the basis of narratives of late modernity particularly those of Giddens Habermas and Harvey as well as feminist and postmodernist approaches Thirdly they show the relevance of sociological work in the analysis of discursive aspects of social life drawing on the work of Bourdieu and Bernstein to theorise the dialectic of social reproduction and change and on post structuralist post colonial and feminist work to theorise the dialectic of complexity and homogenisation in contemporary societies Finally they discuss the relationship between systemic functional linguistics and critical discourse analysis showing how the analytical strength of each can benefit from the other Sets out a new and distinctive theoretical grounding and research agenda for critical discourse analysis Interdisciplinary in scope Draws on a broad range of theories and approaches Discourse as Pedagogy Debra Paxton-Buursma,2005
