Pablo Picasso and Dora Maar Dr Enrique Mallen, 2021-03-12 Although Pablo Picasso spotted Dora Maar at a cafe in January 1936 it is highly likely that she had come to his attention prior As Brassá a Hungarian French photographer recalled It was at Les Deux Magots that one day in autumn 1935 he met Dora On an earlier day he had already noticed the grave drawn face of the young woman at a nearby table the attentive look in her light colored eyes sometimes disturbing in its fixity When Picasso saw her in the same cafe in the company of the surrealist poet Paul Irujo who knew her the poet introduced her to Picasso Brassá aka Gyula Halász Conversations with Picasso University of Chicago Press 1999 Tinged with a seductive mix of violence and dark eroticism this first meeting has attained mythical status in the story of the artist's life It reads like an unreal fantasy A mysterious and feline beauty which Man Ray had captured in the pictures he took of her a companion of Georges Bataille Dora was an accomplished photographer close to the Surrealists revolutionary aesthetics Picasso addressed her in French which he assumed to be her language she replied in Spanish which she knew to be his For the next decade the painter would translate not just his fascination with the woman who had seduced him on the spot but also his desire to escape the grip of someone who for the first time could intellectually aspire to be his equal Dora would appear in his works as a female Minotaur a Sphinx a lunar goddess and a muse Because of her intense artistic sensibility her poetic gifts and her ability to participate in suffering she was especially qualified to resonate Picasso's own inner torments during these troubled years

Pablo Picasso Dr Enrique Mallen, 2019-11-14 As early as the ancient Greeks goddesses served as Muses for artistic creation In essence a creatively charged energy inspired the artist leaving a unique and recognizable mark on the artwork Picassos relationships with the women in his life was deeply formative and he often represented them as Muses He was particularly unabashed in the declaration of his feelings to one of them Marie Therese Walter his youthful mistress of 1927 But at that point Picasso was still married to Olga Khokhlova thus forced to practice the utmost discretion His marriage to Olga made him increasingly frustrated with her imposed bourgeois expectations As a release from this marital burden Marie Therese was ever present in his work often portrayed as Aphrodite with a wreath in her hair a basket of flowers and fruits by her side Marie Therese was the Dream the Muse This fertile period coincided with the strong influence of surrealism which helped liberate Picassos psyche from the straitjacket that Olgas lifestyle imposed on him By 1935 however the model and mistress became a mother to Maya radically changing the role she previously had The following year Picasso was introduced to a new woman Dora Maar an encounter that signalled the beginning of the end of Marie Thereses exclusive claim on Picassos affections and the closing of an artistic period clearly marked by fertility The Aphrodite Period 1924-1936 provides new insights and analysis of Picassos life as recently uncovered through the research of the Online Picasso Project This time span is one of the most illustrative periods of Picassos career in that it clearly demonstrates the close interdependence between sexuality and artistic creativity that characterize Picasso s entire output Pablo Picasso Dr Enrique Mallen,2018-04-23

This book explores the interaction between collectors dealers and exhibitions in Pablo Picassos entire career The former two often played a determining role in which artworks were included in expositions as well as their availability and value in the art market The term collector dealer must often be used in combination since the distinction between both is often unclear Heinz Berggruen for instance identified himself primarily as a collector although he also sold quite a few Picassos through his Paris gallery On the whole however dealers bought more often than collectors and they bought works by artists they were already involved with While some dealers were above all professional gallery owners most were mainly collectors who sporadically sold items from their collection Picassos first known dealer was Pere Manyach whom he met as he travelled to Paris in 1900 when he was only 19 years old As his representative Manyach went about setting up exhibitions of his works at galleries in the French capital such as Bethé Weills and Ambroise Vollards Picassos first major exhibition took place in 1901 at Vollards Daniel Henry Kahnweiler and Leonce Rosenberg came in after Vollard lost interest during the Cubist period as they had a manifest preference for the new style Like Vollard later dealers often preferred the more conventional Neoclassical phase in Picasso This was the case with Leonces brother Paul Rosenberg The book is organized chronologically and discusses the interaction between Picassos collectors dealers and exhibitions as they take place Once collectors acquired an artwork their willingness to lend them to exhibitions or their necessity to submit them to auction had a direct impact on Picassos prominence in the art world Pocket Bios: Pablo Picasso Al Berenger,2019-07-16 A colorfully illustrated pocket size picture book biography of famed artist Pablo Picasso Pablo Picasso was co founder of the Cubist movement and an inventor of art forms such as constructed sculpture and collage An extremely prolific and multi faceted artist he produced a wide variety of extraordinary artworks throughout his long lifetime including the Guernica and The Young Ladies of Avignon oil paintings His creative revolutionary style continues to mesmerize the world to this day and he is one of the most influential and universally renowned artists of the 20th century About the Pocket Bios series Pocket Bios are full of personality introducing readers to fascinating figures from history with simple storytelling and cheerful illustrations Titles include men and women from history exploration the sciences the arts the ancient world and more Love art Don t miss the Pocket Bios about Frida Kahlo and Vincent van Gogh Picasso's Paintings, Watercolors, Drawings and Sculpture:
