Libraries and Key Performance Indicators Leo Appleton,2017-07-27 Libraries and Key Performance Indicators A Framework for Practitioners explores ways by which libraries across all sectors can demonstrate their value and impact to stakeholders through quality assurance and performance measurement platforms including library assessment evaluation methodologies surveys and annual reporting Whilst several different performance measurement tools are considered the book s main focus is on one tool in particular Key Performance Indicators KPIs KPIs are increasingly being used to measure the performance of library and information services however linking KPIs to quality outcomes such as impact and value can prove very difficult This book discusses in detail the concept of KPIs in the broader context of library assessment and performance measurement Through reviewing some of the applied theory around using KPIs along with harvesting examples of current best practices in KPI usage from a variety of different libraries the book demystifies library KPIs providing a toolkit for any library to be used in setting meaningful KPIs against targets charters service standards and quality outcomes Provides an overview of performance measurement tools for libraries Discusses KPIs in a broad context Offers an understanding of reporting monitoring and acting upon KPI data Provides best practice examples of Key Performance Indicators KPIs in libraries Includes practical and reusable examples of KPIs that can be applied in local contexts a toolkit approach Advances in Computational Collective Intelligence Krystian Wojtkiewicz,Jan Treur,Elias Pimenidis,Marcin Maleszka,2021-09-29 This book constitutes refereed proceedings of the 13th International Conference on International Conference on Computational Collective Intelligence ICCCI 2021 held in Kallithea Rhodes Greece in October November 2021 Due to the the COVID 19 pandemic the conference was held online The 44 full papers and 14 short papers were thoroughly reviewed and selected from 231 submissions The papers are organized according to the following topical sections social networks and recommender systems collective decision making computer vision techniques innovations in intelligent systems cybersecurity intelligent methods data mining and machine learning machine learning in real world data Internet of Things and computational technologies for collective intelligence smart industry and management systems low resource languages processing computational intelligence for multimedia understanding Agility.X Christiane Prange,Loizos Heracleous,2018-03-15 In recent years the concept of agility has captured the executive imagination and leaders in a variety of industries and companies of all sizes are now searching for ideas on how to effectively utilize agile thinking This book provides insights on agility from world class experts on leadership strategy and organization alongside seasoned practitioners who have successfully implemented agility programs for companies such as Daimler Ford Motor Company J W Thompson Siemens and NASA By combining theoretical expertise with a variety of managerial experiences it provides a wide ranging yet succinct guide for companies seeking to engage in the transformative journey towards becoming more agile As such it will be of great use and interest to executives in all industries executive education participants and consultants M B A students and researchers interested in agile Agility X prepares leaders for managing under uncertainty and organizations for thriving in turbulent environments Financial Key Performance Indicators and the strategy of six DAX companies. An analysis ,2021-09-16 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2019 in the subject Business economics Controlling grade 1 7 University of Applied Sciences Stuttgart language English abstract This thesis deals with the questions whether there is a correlation between strategies and financial Key Performance Indicators KPIs and how their mutual interdependence developed over time The author wants to find out if the KPIs are changed if the strategy is changed consequently and if that change again affects the KPIs Therefore this work selectively focuses on the evaluation of annual reports between 2009 and 2018 and the development and application of an adjusted Balanced Score card BSC through the further investigation of its financial perspective Key figures make a significant contribution to the management of organisations as they create transparency by providing information about the corporate performance and the progress towards its stated goals its strategy Indicators and strategies seem inevitably linked so that they lose their meaning or significance with out each other Due to a study on key performance indicators of PwC in the year 2017 in Luxembourg with over 40 executives surveyed only 45 % of respondents believed their key performance indicators monitor the performance of long term strategic goals and 31 % are not clearly aware of the link between their KPIs and their long term strategy Those are alarming numbers Often companies use too many outdated or even too few KPIs and the progress of the company s KPIs towards its strategic objectives is not regularly updated and communicated to the staff and workforce A lack of information makes the general company performance be the main reason for the executives for monitoring KPIs The need for change is known as 52 % of the executives surveyed see a need for improvement of their currently followed set of KPIs One of the challenges which affected the companies surveyed within their KPI process including a lack of standardised processes across the industry is the unclear business strategy and the KPIs irrelevancy towards the existing business strategy itself This arises the question how target oriented do German companies align their KPIs and how much do they depend on the corporate strategy Is there a correlation definition the reason why the strategy reference does not become clear and should the KPIs be adapted or even changed in the long term Which strategy leads to which KPIs and which value drivers influence them New Approaches
