

SBAE introduces improved agricultural innovations to locally contextualized knowledge, through concrete experiences on a school demonstration farm.

SBAE asks students to reflect upon their experiences and observe the tension between existing agriculture knowledge and introduced agriculture innovations.

SBAE allows students to test out their new or modified ideas in real world settings through home entrepreneurship projects giving rise to new experiences.

SBAE integrates experiences, reflections and evidence-based knowledge, provided by the agriculture teacher or extension agent, allows students to create new ideas or modify existing concepts to solve problems.

 Using Challenging Educational Theories Portfolio Development and the Assessment of Prior Learning Elana Michelson, Alan Mandell, 2004 For over thirty years portfolios have been used to help adult learners gain recognition for their prior learning and take greater control of their educational experiences The portfolio has become a distinctive means of assessing such learning serving as a meaningful alternative to conventional papers and standardized testing Portfolio Development and the Assessment of Prior Learning Perspectives Models and Practices provides a primer of flexible approaches to shaping and conducting portfolio development courses It offers practitioners in the field an extensive range of model assignments readings and classroom activities each organized around a specific theme Academic Orientation The Meaning of Education Personal Exploration Learning from the Outsider Within The World of Work and Careers and Dimensions of Expertise Twelve case studies by practitioners in the field then show how academics in the US and around the English speaking world have adapted the portfolio to changing circumstances in order to deliver academically rich educational services for adults These case studies highlight portfolio development in the context of web based instruction changing institutional imperatives service to historically disenfranchised groups partnerships with industry and cross institutional cooperation In addition to serving as a valuable hands on resource for practitioners Portfolio Development and the Assessment of Prior Learning locates portfolios and assessment in a broad social and intellectual context Thus the authors also offer an historical overview of the usefulness of portfolios in the assessment of prior learning and then consider their use in the future given current trends in higher education for adults The book explores the implications of a changing educational landscape in which new student populations budgetary pressures and understandings of knowledge both enrich and challenge student centered approaches such as portfolios The approaches and case studies are not only valuable to adult educators but equally to faculty in higher education concerned with the development of competency and outcomes based
