

Julius Caesar

Notebook Notes Act 1 Scene 1

Read the extracts given below and answer the questions that follow:

Second Citizen

Truly, sir, all that I live by is with the awl: I meddle with no tradesman's matters, nor women's matters; but withal I am, indeed, sir, a surgeon to old shoes; when they are in great danger, I recover them. As proper men as ever trod upon neat's leather have gone upon my handiwork.

Flavius

But wherefore art not in thy shop today?

Why dost thou lead these men about the streets?

1. To which question does the Second Citizen give his reply in the first sentence in the extract? Give one example to show that the Second Citizen has earlier confused the officer by his strange replies. (3)

Ans. Flavius and Murellus are on the streets of Rome. They are speaking to the citizens out in the street. Flavius had asked the Second Citizen if he is a cobbler or not, to which he gets the above reply. Earlier, the cobbler answered Murellus's question of profession by saying, he is a 'mender of bad soles (souls)' and 'I can mend you', to which Murellus thought the cobbler is making fun of him. This is why Murellus gets confused by these replies.

2. Give the meaning of: "All that I live by is with the awl." What subtle humour is hinted at in this sentence? (3)

Ans. The meaning of the above line is that the cobbler makes his entire living by using the tool 'awl'. Awl is a tool used to punch holes in leather to attach stitches.

The subtle humour presented in these sentences is the way the cobbler says that he will not meddle in affairs of tradesmen or of women matters but withal. 'Withal' means nevertheless, but in speech it sounds like 'with all'. This gives a different meaning to the sentence, suggesting meddling in all matters.

3. Why does the speaker call himself a surgeon? Explain clearly the implied comparison. (3)

Ans. The speaker calls himself a surgeon to old shoes because he is a cobbler. He humorously states that when the shoes are torn or have been worn out, the cobbler recovers them or stitches them up and bring them back to full health. This is just like a surgeon (doctor), who stitches wounds and helps the patient recover.

4. Give the meaning of the following: "As proper men as ever trod upon neat's leather, have gone upon my handiwork." What is indicated about speaker's craftsmanship in the given sentence? (3)

Ans. The cobbler means that even the most noble men have walked on shoes made with the skill of the cobbler. They were made of neat's leather (ox leather) and were strong and durable. This indicates that the cobbler is a skilled craftsman that make durable shoes and even noble people buy shoes from him.

5. What answer does the Second Citizen give to the following question of Flavius: "Why dost thou lead these men about the streets?" Why is the reply humorous? (4)

Ans. Flavius has asked the cobbler why he is not in his shop today. The cobbler humorously (jokingly) replies that he is leading the people out into the streets because he wants them to wear out their own shoes by walking around. This means the cobbler will get more business and earn more money. On a serious note, the cobbler and the others are observing a holiday, so that they can go and watch Caesar pass through the streets of Rome.
