The Fifth Child Doris Lessing:

The Fifth Child Doris Lessing, 2010-11-17 Doris Lessing's contemporary gothic horror story centered on the birth of a baby who seems less than human probes society's unwillingness to recognize its own brutality. Harriet and David Lovatt, parents of four children, have created an idyll of domestic bliss in defiance of the social trends of late 1960s England. While around them crime and unrest surge, the Lovatts are certain that their old-fashioned contentment can protect them from the world outside until the birth of their fifth baby. Gruesomely goblin-like in appearance, insatiably hungry, abnormally strong, and violent, Ben has nothing innocent or infant-like about him. As he grows older and more terrifying, Harriet finds she cannot love him, David cannot bring himself to touch him, and their four older children are afraid of him. Understanding that he will never be accepted anywhere, Harriet and David are torn between their instincts as parents and their shocked reaction to this fierce and unlovable child whose existence shatters their belief in a benign world.

Fifth Child Doris Lessing, 1988 Theme Parks, Rainforests and Sprouting Wastelands Richard Todd, Luisa Flora, 2000 This lively and fascinating new collection of European essays on contemporary Anglophone fiction has arisen out of the ESSE 3 Conference which was held in Glasgow in September 1995. The contributors live and work in University English Departments in Bulgaria, Croatia, France, Germany, Hungary, Italy, The Netherlands, Portugal, and Spain, as well as in the United Kingdom itself. Essays on general theoretical aspects of the subject head and conclude the collection, and there are also essays on individual writers or groups of writers such as John Fowles, A.S. Byatt, Charles Palliser, Peter Ackroyd, William Golding, Doris Lessing, Daphne du Maurier, Angela Carter, and Christina Stead. The performative aspect of the subject matter of these essays is balanced by a locational aspect including utopian and dystopian writing in authors as diverse as Michael Crichton, Jenny Diski, and Salman Rushdie, and the travel literature of Bruce Chatwin. These essays show theoretical alertness, but no single theoretical position is privileged. The aim of the collection is to provide an indication of the range of work being carried out throughout Europe and Anglophone, mainly British, writing today.

Ben, In the World Doris Lessing, 2009-10-13 Far from resting on her laurels, Lessing goes from strength to strength. Ben's half-human ignorance, paranoia, and rage are magnificently imagined and vividly present on every page. The condition of the outsider has hardly ever before in fiction been portrayed with such raw power and righteous anger. Few, if any, living writers can have explored so many forbidding fictional worlds with such passion and conviction.

Kirkus Reviews The poignant and tragic sequel to Doris Lessing's bestselling novel THE FIFTH CHILD. At eighteen, Ben is in the world but not of it He is too large too awkward too inhumanly made Now estranged from his family he must find his own path in life From London and the south of France to Brazil and the mountains of the Andes Ben is tossed about in a tumultuous search for his people a reason for his being How the world receives him and he fares in it will horrify and captivate until the novel's dramatic finale
