Analysis: This quote is significant because it shows Jonas' first experience of pain. It is a powerful moment that marks the beginning of his journey. The pain is described as a tiny knife, which is a metaphor for the sharp and sudden nature of the experience. The quote also shows Jonas' physical reaction to the pain, as he gasps and feels as if a knife is lodged in his leg. This quote is important because it shows that Jonas is not just a passive receiver of memories, but a person who is capable of feeling and reacting to them.
