Learning Directory, 1970 Assessing Sexual Abuse R. A. Prentky, 1997 Cultural Diversity in Sexual Abuser Treatment Alvin D. Lewis, 1999 Abusers of different cultures may not be assessed accurately because they do not make eye contact or express negative emotions in groups or to therapists. Their cultural support systems have rarely been included in treatment sessions or aftercare plans. Lack of attention to cultural issues may foster ineffective treatment, putting some abusers and their communities at risk. Contributors discuss cultural issues regarding assessment and treatment of female sex abusers as an unrecognized culture: Native Americans, African Americans, Hispanic Americans, Alaska Native groups, Asian Americans, and model approach undertaken with Maoris in New Zealand. Publisher's description.

Healing Myself Gari Carter, 1993-11-01 If you are suffering from pain, if someone you love is suffering from pain, if you'd give anything to be able to overcome that pain without drugs, if you need inspiration from someone who has been there. This book is for you. In 1982, Gari Carter's old life abruptly ended. A head-on car crash destroyed much of her face. Ahead were almost ten years of operations that gradually rebuilt her jaws, cheekbones, nose, and gums. Ahead lay months of helplessness, pain, anxiety, and depression Ahead lay overwhelming fear of pain But ahead lay much more Healing Myself is the story of one woman s successful battle to rise above pain and despair But it s about more than pain It s about the elation she felt as she gained control of her suffering It s about the lessons she learned from hard experiencelessons in patience love and proper priorities Perhaps most astoundingly it s about her discovery of a series of commerciallyproduced audio paincontrol tapes that changed her multiplehour operations from ordeals to be dreaded into challenges to be met calmly and confidentlywithout anesthetics
