Having worked closely with Brad Schultz I know he has important insights to pass along to students in the area of broadcast news production This seems to be a fairly comprehensive effort that covers many of the aspects of news production that other texts have ignored I think it will be a tremendous help to those who are interested in this part of the broadcast journalism industry Dr Joe Foote Arizona State University and Past President of the Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication Brad Schultz has brought his solid professional experience to bear in putting together a highly readable how to for students aspiring to take their place behind the camera Broadcast News Producing is full of useful tips as well as providing important grounding in the fundamentals of producing a successful newscast Beth E Barnes University of Kentucky Broadcast News Producing is one of the first comprehensive texts in its field. While until now most broadcast journalism textbooks have been geared toward students who want careers on camera, Broadcast News Producing goes behind the camera to teach students the hows and whys of putting together compelling news programs for television, radio, and the Internet. This text lays the groundwork for good producing, giving the reader an insider's perspective on newsroom structure and the producer's role. It takes students step by step through the producing process, providing a guide to putting together a successful newscast. The book also addresses critical issues that face today's producers, including ethics, newsroom leadership, staff management, resource management, newsroom relationships, and career planning.

Key Features: Combines the practical skills and techniques needed in today's broadcast news production with timely theoretical and ethical issues facing producers. Serves as a guide to running campus radio and television programs, complete with step-by-step instructions and examples on how to run a news program from start to finish. Reinforces teaching points through graphics, tables, charts, and photos. Gives readers an insider's view of broadcast production through question and answer interviews with current and former broadcast news producers. Focuses separate sections on producing news programs for television, radio, and the Internet, and on producing specialized broadcast news segments such as sports, weather, live reports, debates, roundtable discussions, and call-in shows. Broadcast News Producing is an ideal textbook for undergraduate journalism courses in broadcast news and mass communications. It is also recommended as a reference for secondary school and college newsrooms, where it can be used as a guide to running a campus news program.

The Broadcast Journalism Handbook Gary Hudson, Sarah Rowlands, 2018-10-26. This exciting and comprehensive text takes students, trainees, and professionals into the world of the modern-day newsroom, covering both key techniques and theory in detail. The second edition has been revised and updated to include all the technical, regulatory, and theoretical advances in recent broadcast custom and practice and is influenced by newsrooms around the country.

Main features: Complete coverage of all the key skills: news gathering, interviewing, writing, and story telling; live location reporting; online editing, graphics, and presentation. Expert advice and contributions from leading broadcast journalists from the BBC, ITV, and Sky News. The Essential Guide: a section on how to get a job, the law, and an up-to-date glossary of broadcasting terms. Workshops and Exercises, which provides the opportunity to practise key skills. Case Study: A Closer Look and Thinkpiece boxes help put the theory into context. Remember and Tip boxes summarise key concepts and offer guidance. Downloadable resources demonstrating filming techniques and editing ideas. New for the second edition: Greater emphasis on online elements of broadcast journalism and the role of social media in news gathering. A focus on the interactive nature of the contemporary news process: how to find user-generated content, empower audiences, and engage listeners and viewers. The key skills required for students taking the new NCTJ Broadcast Journalism exams. Ideal for students on journalism courses at all levels; this text is also useful for professionals and trainees working in broadcast, print, and other media, and those looking
