columns that the author wrote for the Varanasi edition of Hindustan Times HT between the period of October 2014 and January 2017. Through these articles the writer has made an attempt to give readers a sneak peek into various shades of life in the holy city. The book is named Kashi Calling for it was the name of the author's columns in HT. The articles appearing in the book cover a range of topics related to the city of Banaras: its culture, people, and famous places. From a recluse who lives with a monkey near the famous Assi Ghat to a cancer surviving London returned lady who works for the empowerment of women, the book deals with people of various backgrounds and tastes. From exploring the other side of death on the land of Shiva to giving an insight into life-changing Vipassana meditation, the book covers experiences of eclectic nature. It also features gods, their place, and importance in the city, besides offering readers a flavour of Banaras gastronomic delights. Apart from covering major milestones like ghats, temples, and famous shops of Varanasi, the book also gives space to lesser known milestones like the statue of Maharajkumar of Vizianagaram which stands in the heart of the city and yet receives no attention, and a replica of Nepal's Pashupatinath Temple which is situated on the banks of the Ganges.
