Writing, Retelling, and Critically Reading Children's and Young Adult Tales Bernard Montoneri, 2025-06-24 This edited collection traces the evolution of writing retelling and critically reading children's and young adult tales over decades of cultural social and technological changes Global contributions cover the increasingly diverse narratives found in children's literature including how contemporary authors challenge traditional gender roles found in fairy tales through modern increasingly prevalent retellings Chapters also consider the psychological impact of storytelling on children and how narratives can provide children with frameworks for understanding their emotions and experiences

Reading Children's Fairytales Mette Lindahl-Wise, Harry Oulton, Vicky Macleroy, Emily Corbett, 2025-11-17 Fairytales form a cornerstone of children's and YA literature studies and the tale of Hansel and Gretel has been translated adapted and retold across the years Reading Children's Fairytales Inside the Gingerbread House brings together leading and emerging researchers and practitioners to showcase how interdisciplinary approaches enable diverse responses to texts This edited collection opens up possibilities for cross pollination between critical multimodal and creative approaches It celebrates multiple forms of knowledge and meaning making within and beyond academic discourse and engages young people in the conversation The authors explore a wide range of retellings of Hansel and Gretel from children's picturebooks graphic novels poetry and young adult fiction to sculpture and Hip Hop to offer a comprehensive investigation of the tale The volume also benefits from the voices of acclaimed creative writers who create and reflect on retellings that cross cultural and international boundaries In engaging with such a range of popular retellings the chapters bring a renewed attention to the need to disrupt hierarchical and canonical perspectives on children's and YA literature

Children's Picture Books and Contemporary Egyptian Society Yasmine Motawy, 2025-02-25 A social and political history of two decades of Egyptian neoliberalism through children's picture books published in Egypt in the post 2000 era Children's picture books are some of the most transparently ideological materials available to parents and educators and as cultural objects they are an expression of the zeitgeist of a particular era They reveal much about the hopes values and aspirations of the society that produces them as well as that society's vision of its place in the wider world at large Children's Picture Books and Contemporary Egyptian Society examines a new wave of Egyptian picture books that was published in the current century to see how these books responded to larger societal trends and transformations in Egypt as well as to explore the ideologies that lie behind them Yasmine Motawy argues that a host of factors including the growth of gated communities and international schooling the proliferation of lucrative literary awards returning Gulf migrants television dramas and nationwide reading advocacy initiatives helped give rise to a new kind of children's picture book in Egypt Motawy focuses on three clusters of selected picture books to investigate the extent to which these books reproduce hegemonic discourses or alternatively open up new horizons of childhood agency and societal transformation The first cluster includes books that directly socialize the child by showing them how things are done in both the domestic sphere and the increasing globalized spaces that children frequent with their families The second cluster aims at reframing cultural notions around femininity through the retelling of folk and fairy tales while the third cluster addresses children's abilities to assess the impact of their actions on their environment and invites them to examine their personal suitability to positions of power and stewardship
