Escape From Reason A Penetrating Analysis Of Trends:

Beating the Bounds Sidney L. Green, 2013-03-08 Using the form of the classical symphony as an analytical and critical tool Sidney Green examines the concepts of orthodoxy and heresy and their historical development in the Christian church and applies those to the confessional approach of the Global Anglican Future Conference GAFCON Using examples from history of the early church the Reformation and the contemporary emerging church Green examines how the concept of boundaries and the exercise of ecclesiastical authority have been applied Contemporary attempts to respond to the postmodern paradigm producing a neo dynamic view of orthodoxy including radical ideas in the area of sexuality are examined Recognizing a dynamism in Anglican orthodoxy that is still very much alive alongside present attempts of conservative minorities to impose their view on the Communion sometimes by very devious means the distinctives of Anglican ecclesiology are discussed in the belief that ecclesiology is the outward expression of what theologically undergirds Anglican orthodoxy Current attempts to bring harmony and stability in place of fracture and dissonance culminating in the suggestion of an Anglican Covenant are examined Possible alternate ways forward are suggested centered on the primacy of love

Adventism Confronts Modernity Robert J. Mayer, 2017-02-16 Many restorationist oriented associations like the Advent Christian Church often embrace two conflicting principles First they understand the Bible s inspiration and authority in a way that minimizes the importance and value of church tradition Second they give high value to individual autonomy both in biblical interpretation and in church governance Adventism Confronts Modernity describes what can happen when these principles conflict and make it difficult to resolve theological conflict This work begins by exploring the nineteenth century historical and theological roots of early Adventism with special attention to William Miller and the theological impact of the Great Disappointment the failed prediction of the early Adventists that Jesus Christ would return visibly in 1843 or 1844 Subsequent chapters explore the Fundamentalist Modernist controversies of the early twentieth century and focus on the impact of those events on the two colleges that trained Advent Christian clergy Aurora College now Aurora University and New England School of Theology later Berkshire Christian College After discussing theological reform efforts within the Protestant mainline and fundamentalist coalitions this book describes the conflicting views regarding the Bible s inspiration that emerged in the early twentieth century and their impact on the Advent Christian Church during the 1950s and 1960s It concludes that further reflection is needed on both the doctrine of Holy Scripture and how restorationist movements balance Christian theology with individual and congregational autonomy
