Handbook of Research on Schools, Schooling and Human Development Judith L. Meece, Jacquelynne S. Eccles, 2010-06-10 Children spend more time in school than in any social institution outside the home And schools probably exert more influence on children s development and life chances than any environment beyond the home and neighbourhood The purpose of this book is to document some important ways schools influence children s development and to describe various models and methods for studying schooling effects Key features include Comprehensive Coverage this is the first book to provide a comprehensive review of what is known about schools as a context for human development Topical coverage ranges from theoretical foundations to investigative methodologies and from classroom level influences such as teacher student relations to broader influences such as school organization and educational policies Cross Disciplinary this volume brings together the divergent perspectives methods and findings of scholars from a variety of disciplines among them educational psychology developmental psychology school psychology social psychology psychiatry sociology and educational policy Chapter Structure to ensure continuity chapter authors describe 1 how schooling influences are conceptualized 2 identify their theoretical and methodological approaches 3 discuss the strengths and weaknesses of existing research and 4 highlight implications for future research practice and policy Methodologies chapters included in the text feature various methodologies including longitudinal studies hierarchical linear models experimental and quasi experimental designs and mixed methods

Life Span Human Development Carol K. Sigelman, Linda De George, Kimberley Cunial, Elizabeth A. Rider, 2018-09-01 The third edition of Life Span Human Development helps students gain a deeper understanding of the many interacting forces affecting development from infancy childhood adolescence and adulthood It includes local multicultural and indigenous issues and perspectives local research in development regionally relevant statistical information and National guidelines on health Taking a unique integrated topical and chronological approach each chapter focuses on a domain of development such as physical growth cognition or personality and traces developmental trends and influences in that domain from infancy to old age Within each chapter you will find sections on four life stages infancy childhood adolescence and adulthood This distinctive organisation enables students to comprehend the processes of transformation that occur in key areas of human development This text also includes a MindTap course offering with a strong suite of resources including videos and the chronological sections within the text can be easily customised to suit academic and student needs

Readings in Human Development and Learning Cyril P. Svoboda, Elizabeth J. Koopman, 1976 Handbook of Psychology, Developmental Psychology Richard M. Lerner, M. Ann Easterbrooks, Jayanthi Mistry, 2003-03-04 Includes established theories and cutting edge developments Presents the work of an international group of experts Presents the nature origin implications and future course of major unresolved issues in the area Human Development, from Birth Through Adolescence Ira J. Gordon, 1969 The Process of Human Development Clara Shaw Schuster, Shirley Smith Ashburn, 1986 The International Journal of Aging & Human Development, 2005 Human Development James Wilfrid Vander Zanden, 2003 Human Development Across the Lifespan John Dacey, John Travers, Lisa Fiore, 2008-04-07 This introduction to human development will be of particular interest to education nursing and psychology students taking single semester classes on the subject This edition includes increased coverage of exceptional individuals revised chapters on adulthood and integrated web and media resources Human Development Report, 2010 Cross-Cultural Human Development Robert Munroe, Ruth H. Munroe, 1977-07-07 Concepts and Theories of Human Development Richard M. Lerner, 1997 The third edition of Concepts and Theories of Human Development describes and critically evaluates through the lens of developmental systems theories the key conceptual issues and theoretical approaches to understanding human development across Human Development, 1988 Lifespan Human Development Sueann Robinson Ambron, David Brodzinsky, 1979 The Psychology of Human Development Karl Claudius Garrison, Franklin Ross Jones, Raymond F. Morgan, 1985 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1985 International Perspectives on Human Development Anna Laura Comunian, Uwe Peter Gielen, 2000 Human Development Bulletin, 1955 Human Development Across the Life Span Fergus P. Hughes, Lloyd D. Noppe, 1985 A thorough comprehensive topical introduction to human development In rejecting classic age and stage treatments of human development these authors take an approach that better shows the continuity of the developmental process They emphasize the interdisciplinary nature of the field by integrating pertinent ideas from such diverse sources as sociology biology and cultural anthropology This edition embraces more discussion of infancy greater coverage of the adult and a more thorough look at the role of women in a person's growth and development than the previous edition
