The Construction, Negotiation, and Representation of Immigrant Student Identities in South African schools Saloshna Vandeyar, Thirusellvan Vandeyar, 2015-02-06 This study explores how Black immigrant students in South African schools negotiate their identities It examines identity framing school integration social networks emerging self identities and the impact of the South African context on these students

Multilingual Universities in South Africa Liesel Hibbert, Christa van der Walt, 2014-04-03 Focusing on the use of African languages in higher education this book showcases South African higher education practitioners attempts to promote a multilingual ethos in their classes It is a first time overview of multilingual teaching and learning strategies that have been tried and tested in a number of higher education institutions in South Africa Despite language in education policies that extol the virtues of multilingualism practice remains oriented towards English only learning and teaching In the multilingual contexts of local campuses this book shows how students and lecturers attempt to understand their multiple identities and use the available languages to create multilingual learning environments

Social Work in Social Change Nicci Earle, 2008 This study forms part of a series of studies on professions and professional education being conducted by the HSRC s research programme on Education Science Skills Development It follows a pilot study on medical doctors published in 2006 entitled Doctors in a Divided Society The profession and education of medical practitioners in South Africa Like the other studies in the series this study involved developing an understanding of the professional milieu and professional labour market of social workers As the implementers of government social policy social work professionals have been at the forefront of grappling with the practicalities of the changes in focus approach and methods of social security and social service delivery since 1994 It examines developments in the education and training of social workers within the democratic dispensation the most significant of which is the development of a national standardised Bachelor of Social Work degree The study also reveals that the dominant profile in student enrolment and graduation statistics has changed from white female to African female and that enrolment has increased significantly However the study also shows that graduation trends have been negative and losses due to emigration are an additional concern Given the scarcity of these professionals against the demand for their services understanding the factors that contribute to this picture are critical to effective intervention

Study English Gene Swanepoel, 2000-12 Language, Society and the State in a Changing World Stanley D. Brunn, Roland Kehrein, 2023-04-08 This book addresses the changing contemporary language worlds in three major contexts It first discusses how the language landscape maps of cities are changing as a result of increased migration globalization and global media These features are evident in place names and place name changes as well as the densities and frequencies of language spoken and used in texts The second section discusses how the state itself is responding to both indigenous and heritage groups desiring to be included and represented in the state s political landscapes and also expressions of art and culture In the third section the authors address a number of cutting edge theses

that are emerging in the linguistic geography and political words These include the importance of gender anthropogenetic discourse the preservation of endangered languages and challenges to a state s official language policy Through including authors from nine different countries who are writing about issues in twelve countries and their overlapping interests in language mapping language usage and policy and visual representations this book provides inspiring research into future topics at local national regional and international scales Drum ,2008 Fanie Fourie's Lobola Nape'a Motana,2007 Fanie Fourie is a true blue boere seun with an unrepentantly macho approach to love and life in general But his world view undergoes an abrupt reinvention when he is bitten by the louse and bedbug of love and falls head over heels for Dimakatjo Machabaphala a beautiful black nurse In pursuit of true love these lovers must steer a path through the challenging intricacies of inter cultural negotiation and leap the hurdles of racial bigotry tenacious former lovers and the like finally to emerge triumphant as traditionally united man and wife This delightful novel is filled with naughty humor and ironic reversals of stereotype With a deft and humorous pen the author evokes the colliding worlds of traditional and contemporary culture in a South Africa still struggling to renegotiate roles and relationships and shake off the complexes and prejudices of the past Emerging Voices Human Sciences Research Council,Education Policy Consortium (South Africa),2005 This examination graphically illustrates the conditions that make dreams of a better life for all virtually unrealizable in rural areas of South Africa Through the voices of rural people themselves this study tells not only what the problems surrounding education are but also what can and should be done when the South African government launches its offensive against poverty in rural areas Rigorous and qualitative the text is an overview of the need of great numbers of people for the opportunities and capabilities that education can provide for their futures It also shows the existing situation of many impoverished populations worldwide and illustrates that poverty and inequality continue where such issues are not addressed Understanding Early Childhood: Issues And Controversies Penn, Helen,2014-07-01 Understanding Early Childhood is an introductory text for students on early years courses which offers broad and insightful perspectives across a range of themes on the ways in which we understand and study young children A Love Letter to This Bridge Called My Back gloria j wilson,Joni Boyd Acuff,Amelia M Kraehe,2022-06-07 In 1981 Chicana feminist intellectuals Cherr e Moraga and Gloria Anzald a published what would become a touchstone work for generations of feminist women of color the seminal This Bridge Called My Back Writings by Radical Women of Color To celebrate and honor this important work editors gloria j wilson Joni B Acuff and Amelia M Kraehe offer new generations A Love Letter to This Bridge Called My Back In A Love Letter creators illuminate question and respond to current politics progressive struggles transformations acts of resistance and solidarity while also offering readers a space for renewal and healing The central theme of the original Bridge is honored exposing the lived realities of women of color at the intersections of race class gender ethnicity and sexuality advancing those early conversations on what it means to be Third World feminist conscious A Love Letter recognizes the challenges
