The Eagle In Sand 7 Simon Scarrow:

The Eagle in the Sand Simon Scarrow, 2007-05 Trouble is brewing in Syria on the eastern frontier of the Roman Empire With the troops in a deplorable state centurions Macro and Cato are despatched to restore the competence of the cohort But another challenge faces them as Bannus a local tribesman is brewing up trouble and preaching violent opposition to Rome As the local revolt grows in scale Macro and Cato must stamp out corruption in the cohort and restore it to fighting fitness to quash Bannus before the eastern provinces are lost to the Empire forever The Cthulhu Campaigns Mark

Latham, 2016-11-17 Rome the greatest empire the world has ever known limitless in breadth and power magnificent in its glory But something evil ancient and unknowable gnaws at the heart of the empire Dark gods trapped for centuries in thrice warded tombs have been disturbed by Roman plunderers A secret war is fought daily between those who would harness this strange power for themselves and those who fear it signals the very end of the empire Across the sea roused from eternal slumber by a world awash with war by omens and pagan slaughter a Great Old One waits for the way to be opened A cosmic terror that man was not meant to know Those who know its name tremble and only the very brave or very foolish incant it for their own ends They whisper it in darkness they cry it from atop blasted hills they scream it to the raging oceans Cthulhu

Researching Literary Tourism Charlie Mansfield, 2015-04-06 Plymouth University academic Dr Charlie Mansfield approaches literary tourism in this book initially from an historical perspective in order to define the phenomenon through a review of the existing academic literature in the field The forms of literary tourism are analysed to provide a typology and from this the value of literary tourism is explained both from the visitor s point of view and the destination manager s Current theories underpinning the existing literature on literary tourism including Bourdieu s concept of cultural capital are reviewed To extend the current state of research and to answer the research questions a case study of successful urban literary tourism is identified in Brittany France The uses of French literature in literary tourism are reviewed to provide a sound basis on which to examine French texts and tourist destinations Novel methods of field research are developed to formalise and to make reproducible the methodology for this study and for future work drawing on and seeking to combine both literary theory and ethnography Following a pilot study on the French Riviera the full discovery instruments are designed and applied in fieldwork on the case destination Concarneau using the detective novel The Yellow Dog which is set in Concarneau Analysis of the findings from this provide a new contribution to the field of literary theory in the area of reader interpellation and answer the research questions in the form of a new set of recommendations for DMOs and tourism stakeholders From the empirical study that used Web 2.0 social media only available since 2013 an analysis of which novels do stimulate literary tourism is presented for the first time Out of the research process new methods have been evolved and are presented in the conclusion for the DMO to synthesise and leverage digital resources This provides DMOs with interpretation processes for its managed heritage to use with its local stakeholders in hotels and in tourism businesses Finally an innovative conceptualisation of what constitutes tourism knowledge is proposed The Eagle In The Sand (Eagles of the Empire 7)
