Twenty-First-Century Feminisms in Children's and Adolescent Literature Roberta Seelinger Trites, 2018-01-17 Over twenty years after the publication of her groundbreaking work Waking Sleeping Beauty Feminist Voices in Children s Novels Roberta Seelinger Trites returns to analyze how literature for the young still provides one outlet in which feminists can offer girls an alternative to sexism Supplementing her previous work in the linguistic turn Trites employs methodologies from the material turn to demonstrate how feminist thinking has influenced literature for the young in the last two decades She interrogates how material feminism can expand our understanding of maturation and gender especially girlhood as represented in narratives for preadolescents and adolescents Twenty First Century Feminisms in Children s and Adolescent Literature applies principles behind material feminisms such as ecofeminism intersectionality and the ethics of care to analyze important feminist thinking that permeates twenty first century publishing for youth The structure moves from examinations of the individual to examinations of the individual in social environmental and interpersonal contexts The book deploys ecofeminism and the posthuman to investigate how embodied individuals interact with the environment and via the extension of feministic ethics how people interact with each other romantically and sexually Throughout the book Trites explores issues of identity gender race class age and sexuality in a wide range of literature for young readers such as Kate DiCamillo s Flora and Ulysses Jacqueline Woodson s Brown Girl Dreaming and Rainbow Rowell s Eleanor Park She demonstrates how shifting cultural perceptions of feminism affect what is happening both in publishing for the young and in the academic study of literature for children and adolescents
