How to be an Author Ashton Cartwright, 36 real authors give us an in depth look at their successes their mistakes and their careers as writers There is nothing in the world as incredible as creating something and getting to hear about other people enjoying it You know that you've made a change in someone's life even if it's only in a small way It's one of the best feelings in the world Everyone who becomes a professional author does so for different reasons They each face different obstacles have different goals and choose different paths The more authors that a new writer gets the opportunity to learn from the greater the chance that they'll find someone they resonate with and that they'll discover something that can help them in their own career Some of the authors in this book are self-published others are traditionally published Some have worked with agents and others have chosen to represent themselves Some authors in this book generate hundreds of thousands of dollars in royalties while others have just finished their very first novel Some exclusively write fiction some non-fiction and some write a bit of both Some of them write just for the joy of writing others for the money and still others because they have a story that NEEDS to be told If you take your writing seriously and are keen to be the best author that you can be then How to be an Author 36 Real Authors Talk Writing and Publishing is the book for you Do You Talk Funny? David Nihill,2016-03-08 Public speaking can be terrifying For David Nihill the idea of standing in front of an audience was scarier than cliff jumping into a thorny pit of spiders and mothers in law Without a parachute or advanced weaponry Something had to change In what doesn't sound like the best plan ever David decided to overcome his fears by pretending to be an accomplished comedian called Irish Dave for one full year crashing as many comedy clubs festivals and shows as possible One part of the plan was at least logical he was already Irish and already called Dave In one year David went from being deathly afraid of public speaking to hosting a business conference regularly performing stand up comedy and winning storytelling competitions in front of packed houses And he did it by learning from some of the best public speakers in the world stand up comedians Do You Talk Funny 7 Comedy Habits to Become a Better and Funnier Public Speaker shows how the key principles of stand up comedy can be applied to your speaking engagements and presentations to make you funnier more interesting and better looking Or at least two of the three Whether you are preparing for a business presentation giving a wedding toast defending your thesis raising money from investors or simply want to take on something you re afraid of this book will take you from sweaty to stage ready You ll learn how to Craft a story and content that your audience will want to listen to Find the funniest parts of your material and how to get to them faster Deal with stage fright Master the two most important parts of your performance timing and delivery Ten percent of the author s proceeds from this book will go to Arash Bayatmakou via Help Hope Live until he is fully back on his feet and thereafter to one of the many facing the same challenges after suffering a severe spinal cord injury
