3. Why is sociology so different from other social sciences like physics? Sociology is different from other social sciences because Sociology can help us understand the social forces that affect our behavior, beliefs, and life chances, but it can only go so far. 8. Why can't individuals always trust "expert authorities"? They can't trust "expert authorities" because the evidence may not be updated to the fullest or it can also be false. Tradition is generally valuable, because a society should always be aware of its Roots. However, traditional ways of thinking about social reality often turn out to be inaccurate and incomplete.
