It reports on recent advances in the interdisciplinary fields of health, technology, and management covering a broad spectrum of topics like drug discovery and development including diseases like cancer, tropical and lifestyle diseases, agroecology, artificial intelligence, and machine learning. The symposium is jointly organized by the Global Health Techno Management Forum and the Global Institute of Pharmaceutical Education and Research, Kashipur, India, together with the Veer Madho Singh Bhandari Uttarakhand Technical University, Dehradun, India. It builds on the success of previous conferences such as the International Symposium on Drug Design and Development Research (DDDR) 2021, International Symposium on Current Trends in Pharmaceutical and Medical Sciences (CTPMS) 2020, International Seminar on Global Trends in Health and Environment 2016, International Seminar on Pharmaceutical Education and Research (ISPER) 2010, and the 9th International Symposium on Computational Methods in Toxicology and Pharmacology Integrating Internet Resources (CMTPI) 2017. Offering a timely snapshot of cutting-edge multidisciplinary research and developments in drug design and health sciences, these proceedings facilitate the transfer of these findings to industry and offer a unique perspective on One Health sustainability. As such, the book will appeal not only to students and researchers but also to professionals interested in these fields. Serving Teens and Adults on the Autism Spectrum Carrie Rogers, 2020-10-01 Understand the unique needs of teens and adults with autism and how to adapt existing library programs to be more inclusive. Autism spectrum disorder is a lifelong condition, but programs and services are mostly for children. As this population ages and the number of adults receiving autism diagnoses grows, are public libraries serving this group? Serving Teens and Adults on the Autism Spectrum offers practical strategies for delivering better service to individuals with autism from library programming to technology collections, library volunteers, and the information desk. Relying on feedback and help from the autism community in her area, Carrie Rogers Whitehead created programs for children, teens, and young adults on the autism spectrum. In this book, she shares advice on developing programs that focus on teamwork, transitions, and social skills. She explains best practices for reference interviews and teaches readers how their libraries can partner with nonprofit and government entities to develop workforce skills and connect adults with autism to jobs. Ready-made program activities for teens and adults with autism make it easy for libraries to better serve this often misunderstood group
