

Accounts Receivable interview questions and answers to evaluate junior clerks

Can you explain the difference between Accounts Receivable and Accounts Payable?

A strong candidate should be able to clearly distinguish between Accounts Receivable (AR) and Accounts Payable (AP). They should explain that AR represents money owed to the company by customers for goods or services provided on credit, while AP represents money the company owes to its suppliers or vendors for goods or services received on credit.

Look for answers that highlight the following key points:

AR is an asset on the balance sheet, while AP is a liability

AR involves collecting money from customers, while AP involves paying money to suppliers

AR increases when a sale is made on credit, while AP increases when the company makes a purchase on credit

Accounting Principles Jerry J. Weygandt, Paul D. Kimmel, Donald E. Kieso, 2010-12-20 Weygandt's Accounting Principles introduces challenging accounting concepts with examples that are familiar to accountants. The new edition has been updated with the latest IFRS/IASB standards. Additional coverage is included on foreign currency translation and LCM. More discussions focus on risk management as a result of the financial crisis. The examples also emphasize current examples in order to help accountants make the connection to their everyday lives. Accounting Paul D. Kimmel, Jerry J. Weygandt, Donald E. Kieso, 2010-12-01 With this fourth edition, accountants will acquire a practical set of tools and the confidence they need to use them effectively in making business decisions. It better reflects a more conceptual and decision-making approach to the material. The authors follow a macro-to-micro strategy by starting with a discussion of real financial statements first rather than starting with the Accounting Cycle. The objective is to establish how a financial statement communicates the financing, investing, and operating activities of a business to users of accounting information. This motivates accountants by grounding the discussion in the real world, showing them the relevance of the topics covered to their careers.
