methods are groups of practices for the development of projects in IT software design that can be applied to various types of projects. They involve the maximum the applicant client and allow greater responsiveness to requests. They aim to real customer satisfaction a priority under a development agreement. A successful web development is primarily based on iterative refinement of needs implemented in functionality in progress and even already completed. The marketing strategy aims to put the company in question in line with the implicit or explicit requirements of the market in which it operates. The foundations of the strategy are to discover and especially to influence the needs of potential customers and identify products and services. E marketing or Internet marketing is used to manage a web presence and a report to the user and to the communities it represents. The challenge here is to disseminate a consistent image of brand and company regardless of the communication media. Marketing 2.0 refers to a new generation of emerging marketing concepts of the Internet age. A social network is a set of brands such as individuals or organizations interconnected by links created during social interactions. It is represented by a structure or a dynamic form of a social group. The analysis of social networks is based on network theory, the use of graphs and sociological analysis. Online social networking services are used to build a social network by connecting friends, associates and generally individuals together using a variety of tools in order to facilitate for example management of professional careers, distribution and artistic visibility or private meetings. Social commerce is a subset of e-commerce. It involves social media and other digital media that support social interaction and user contributions to assist in buying and selling products and services online. Simply put, social commerce is the use of social networks for e-commerce transactions.
