represented Key themes in current thinking about Africa s history are illustrated with a range of fascinating historical examples drawn from over 5 millennia across this vast continent ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable Studies from Ten Literatures Ernest Augustus Boyd,1925 Uplifting the Race Kevin K. Gaines,2012-12-01 Amidst the violent racism prevalent at the turn of the twentieth century African American cultural elites struggling to articulate a positive black identity developed a middle class ideology of racial uplift Insisting that they were truly representative of the race s potential black elites espoused an ethos of self help and service to the black masses and distinguished themselves from the black majority as agents of civilization hence the phrase uplifting the race A central assumption of racial uplift ideology was that African Americans material and moral progress would diminish white racism But Kevin Gaines argues that in its emphasis on class distinctions and patriarchal authority racial uplift ideology was tied to pejorative notions of racial pathology and thus was limited as a force against white prejudice Drawing on the work of W E B Du Bois Anna Julia Cooper Alice Dunbar Nelson Hubert H Harrison and others Gaines focuses on the intersections between race and gender in both racial uplift ideology and black nationalist thought showing that the meaning of uplift was intensely contested even among those who shared its aims Ultimately elite conceptions of the ideology retreated from more democratic visions of uplift as social advancement leaving a legacy that narrows our conceptions of rights citizenship and social justice *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
