How to Play Mahjong Bob Hansson, 2024-01-21 How to play Mahjong. The mahjong game, known as the game of one hundred intelligences, is a Chinese game originated in China during the mid-19th century. Although its exact origin remains somewhat elusive, the game is commonly ascribed to Chinese army commanders who created it based on earlier Chinese card games and domino games. Mahjong is a game played by four players, though it can also be altered for playing with different numbers of people. The game is characterized by a complex set of tiles, all beautifully decorated with different symbols and characters. The basic objective of Mahjong is to form or build a complete set of tiles, referred to as the Mahjong hand. Players perform this action by drawing and discarding tiles, forming specific combinations based on the rules of the game. This book is an indispensable source for beginners who want to learn the game and even seasoned enthusiasts seeking strategic skills. Sharpening Between the pages of this book is a guide to Mahjong game play from basic aspects through detailed explanation. This guide offers insightful and strategic tips from a careful set-up of the game based on symbolism represented by tiles to form winning hands.
