

Web Design Proposal Template

Web Design Proposal Template

As a web designer, you excel at creating beautiful, appealing webpages that engage users and allow them to easily navigate information. In order to secure new clients and get new work from existing customers, however, you will need to write proposals. You can use this template to develop proposals to respond to Requests for Proposals (RFPs) or to share your capabilities with potential clients.

HubSpot Tip: Each web design project is different, so you will need to adapt this template to each opportunity that you pursue. It is important to provide each client a customized proposal that meets the unique requirements of their website.

Cover Letter

The first page of your proposal should consist of a cover letter directed to the client. Thank the customer for accepting your proposal and briefly describe your web design services and your plan for this project.

Close the letter with a couple of sentences stating that you are looking forward to working with them. Provide your contact information (e.g., email address and phone number) so that they can
