High Contrast Sharon Willis, 1997 In High Contrast Sharon Willis examines the dynamic relationships between racial and sexual difference in Hollywood film from the 1980s and 1990s Seizing on the way these differences are accentuated sensationalized and eroticized on screen most often with little apparent regard for the political context in which they operate Willis restores that context through close readings of a range of movies from cinematic blockbusters to the work of the new auteurs Spike Lee David Lynch and Quentin Tarantino Capturing the political complexity of these films Willis argues that race gender and sexuality as they are figured in the fantasy of popular film do not function separately but rather inform and determine each other s meaning She demonstrates how collective anxieties regarding social difference are mapped onto big budget movies like the Die Hard and Lethal Weapon series Basic Instinct Fatal Attraction Thelma and Louise Terminator 2 and others Analyzing the artistic styles of directors Lynch Tarantino and Lee in such films as Wild at Heart Pulp Fiction and Do the Right Thing she investigates how these interactions of difference are linked to the production of specific authorial styles and how race functions for each of these directors particularly in relation to gender identity erotics and fantasy
