Chinese Self Healing Methods Fa Jing Chuan:

Marvin Smalheiser Legacy with Tai Chi ,2017-11-30 This book is an accumulation of Master Marvin Smalheiser's writing in the Tai Chi magazine from its inception in 1977 till 2016. Master Smalheiser was the editor and the owner of Tai Chi magazine and he published only an article related to tai chi. He was a practitioner as well as a teacher. He lived what he thought was the best way of life: helpful, humble, and down to earth. This book covers many aspects and benefits of tai chi as a martial art that Master Smalheiser felt to write about. Some of the topics are meditation, relaxation, self-defense, the types of tai chi, history, health, personal interviews with masters in the US and abroad, and more. It was Master Smalheiser's wish to write books about tai chi, but his untimely death did not allow him to get the books done. I do not know much about tai chi, therefore I gathered some of his writings and made this book to benefit all the tai chi practitioners as Master Smalheiser wanted. It is my wish that the tai chi enthusiasts will enjoy the book and remember Master Marvin Smalheiser.

Picturing the True Form Shih-shan Susan Huang,2020-03-17 Picturing the True Form investigates the long neglected visual culture of Daoism, China's primary indigenous religion from the tenth through thirteenth centuries, with references to both earlier and later times. In this richly illustrated book, Shih-shan Susan Huang provides a comprehensive mapping of Daoist images in various media, including Dunhuang manuscripts, funerary artifacts, and paintings, as well as other charts, illustrations, and talismans preserved in the fifteenth-century Daoist Canon. True form, zhenxing, the key concept behind Daoist visuality, is not static but entails an active journey of seeing underlying and secret phenomena. This book's structure mirrors the two-part Daoist journey from inner to outer. Part I focuses on inner images associated with meditation and visualization practices for self-cultivation and longevity. Part II investigates the visual and material dimensions of Daoist ritual. Interwoven through these discussions is the idea that the inner and outer mirror each other and the boundary demarcating the two is fluid. Huang also reveals three central modes of Daoist symbolism: aniconic, immaterial, and ephemeral, and shows how Daoist image-making goes beyond the traditional dichotomy of text and image to incorporate writings in image design. It is these particular features that distinguish Daoist visual culture from its Buddhist counterpart.

Folk Literati, Contested Tradition, and Heritage in Contemporary China Ziyang You,2020-02-11 In this important ethnography, Ziyang You explores the role of the folk literati in negotiating, defining, and maintaining local cultural heritage. Expanding on the idea of the elite literati, a widely studied pre-modern Chinese social group influential in cultural production, the folk literati are defined as those who are skilled in classical Chinese, knowledgeable about local traditions, and capable of representing them in writing. The folk literati work to maintain cultural continuity, a concept that is expressed locally through the vernacular phrase "incense is kept burning." You's research focuses on a few small villages in Hongtong County, Shanxi Province, in contemporary China. Through a careful synthesis of oral interviews, participant observation, and textual analysis, You presents the important role the folk literati play in reproducing local traditions and continuing stigmatized beliefs in a community context. She demonstrates how eight folk literati have reconstructed shifted and negotiated local worship traditions around the ancient sage Kings Yao and Shun as well as Ehuang and N ying Yao s two daughters and Shun s two wives You highlights how these individuals conflictive relationships have shaped and reflected different local beliefs myths legends and history in the course of tradition preservation She concludes her study by placing these local traditions in the broader context of Chinese cultural policy and UNESCO s Intangible Cultural Heritage program documenting how national and international discourses impact actual traditions and the conversations about them on the ground
