Navigating Fake News, Alternative Facts, and Misinformation in a Post-Truth World Dalkir, Kimiz, Katz, Rebecca, 2020-02-28 In the current day and age objective facts have less influence on opinions and decisions than personal emotions and beliefs Many individuals rely on their social networks to gather information thanks to social media s ability to share information rapidly and over a much greater geographic range However this creates an overall false balance as people tend to seek out information that is compatible with their existing views and values They deliberately seek out facts and data that specifically support their conclusions and classify any information that contradicts their beliefs as false news Navigating Fake News Alternative Facts and Misinformation in a Post Truth World is a collection of innovative research on human and automated methods to deter the spread of misinformation online such as legal or policy changes information literacy workshops and algorithms that can detect fake news dissemination patterns in social media While highlighting topics including source credibility share culture and media literacy this book is ideally designed for social media managers technology and software developers IT specialists educators columnists writers editors journalists broadcasters newscasters researchers policymakers and students
