Validating Technological Innovation

David Coniam, Peter Falvey, 2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong's use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong The authors discuss their experience of the validation process demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders

Hope in Hell

Jonathon Porritt, 2021-04-06 A book for facing head on and averting the oncoming global climate change disaster by inspiring people to move from general concern and passive support to active protagonists for change Climate change is our era's defining issue We know beyond reasonable doubt that climate change is accelerating To face a challenge greater than humanity has ever seen before we must also accelerate ourselves by summoning a sense of urgency courage and shared effort to match it Jonathan Porritt's Hope In Hell is meant to do just that by confronting the issue directly and strongly but also with inspiration and hope it's not too late to avoid the worst consequences of climate change Ultimately optimistic despite the dire challenge presented to the world Porritt explores current science and new technologies mobilization of younger people and political action and encouraging intergenerational solidarity as older generations learn their own responsibilities in creating a better world for their successors
