Stories of Your Life and Others Ted Chiang, 2002-07-05 Ted Chiang's first published story Tower of Babylon won the Nebula Award in 1990 Subsequent stories have won the Asimov's SF Magazine reader poll a second Nebula Award the Theodore Sturgeon Memorial Award and the Sidewise Award for alternate history He won the John W Campbell Award for Best New Writer in 1992 Story for story he is the most honored young writer in modern SF Now collected here for the first time are all seven of this extraordinary writer's stories so far plus an eighth story written especially for this volume What if men built a tower from Earth to Heaven and broke through to Heaven's other side What if we discovered that the fundamentals of mathematics were arbitrary and inconsistent What if there were a science of naming things that calls life into being from inanimate matter What if exposure to an alien language forever changed our perception of time What if all the beliefs of fundamentalist Christianity were literally true and the sight of sinners being swallowed into fiery pits were a routine event on city streets These are the kinds of outrageous questions posed by the stories of Ted Chiang Stories of your life and others

The Spirit within Me Carol A. Newsom, 2021-10-12 The first full length study of the evolution of self and agency in ancient Israelite anthropology Conceptions of the self have received significant recent attention in philosophy anthropology and cultural history Scholars argue that the introspective self of the modern West is a distinctive phenomenon that cannot be projected back onto the cultures of antiquity While acknowledging such difference is vital it can lead to an inaccurate flattening of the ancient self In this study Carol A Newsom explores the assumptions that govern ancient Israelite views of the self and its moral agency before the fall of Judah as well as striking developments during the Second Temple period She demonstrates how the collective trauma of the destruction of the Temple catalyzed changes in the experience of the self in Israelite literature including first person singular prayers notions of self alienation and emerging understandings of a defective heart and will Examining novel forms of spirituality as well as sectarian texts Newsom chronicles the evolving inward gaze in ancient Israelite literature unveiling how introspection in Second Temple Judaism both parallels and differs from forms of introspective selfhood in Greco Roman cultures

Arrival DAVID. ROCHE, 2024-09-17 A study of Denis Villeneuve's genre transcendent film In Denis Villeneuve's Arrival 2016 scientists must decipher the language of and peacefully communicate with aliens who have landed on Earth before the world's military attacks In this first book length study of the film scholar David Roche argues that it is one of the most important films of this century and the most brilliant science fiction film since Blade Runner Roche posits Arrival as a blockbuster with artistic ambitions an argument supported by the film's several Academy Award nominations and looks closely at how the film engages with theoretical questions posed by contemporary film studies and philosophy alike Each section explores a central aspect of the film its status as an auteur adaptation its relation to the science fiction genre its themes of communication on narrative and meta narrative levels its aesthetics of time and space and the political and ethical questions it raises Ultimately Roche declares Arrival a unique multifaceted experience in the world of hard science fiction films placing it in context with works like 2001 A Space Odyssey Close Encounters of the Third Kind and Contact while also examining how it bridges the gap between genre and art house cinema

Publisher Feminist Posthumanism in Contemporary Science Fiction Film and Media Julia A. Empey, Russell J.A. Kilbourn, 2023-08-24 Feminist Posthumanism in Contemporary Science Fiction Film and Media From Annihilation to High Life and Beyond places posthumanism and feminist theory into dialogue with contemporary science fiction film and media This essay collection is intimately invested in the debates around the posthuman and the critical posthumanities within a feminist critical theoretical framework In this posthumanist light science fiction as a genre allows for new imaginings of human technological relations while it can also be the site of a critique of human exceptionalism and essentialism In this way science fiction affords unique opportunities for the scholarly investigation of the relevance and relative applicability of specific posthumanist themes and questions in a particularly rich and wide ranging popular cultural field of production One of the reasons for this suitability is the genre's historically longstanding relationship with the critical investigation of gender specifically the position and relative empowerment of women The original analyses presented here pay close attention to audiovisual style including game mechanics facilitating the critical interrogation of the issues and questions around posthumanism Where typically the mention of SF in the posthumanist context calls to mind a whole set of often clichéd tropes the cyborg technologically augmented bodies AI subjectivities etc this volume's thirteen chapters analyze specific examples of contemporary SF cinema that engage in meaningful ways with the burgeoning field of critical posthumanism and that utilize such films to interrogate posthumanist and feminist as well as humanistic ideas
