Translating and Interpreting in Korean Contexts

Ji-Hae Kang,Judy Wakabayashi,2019-04-03 The focus of this volume is on how the people of the Korean Peninsula historically an important part of the Sinocentric world in East Asia and today a vital economic and strategic site have negotiated oral and written interactions with their Asian neighbors and Europeans in the past and present through the mediation of translators and interpreters. These encounters have been shaped by political, social, and cultural factors, including the shared use of the Chinese writing system in East Asia for many centuries, attitudes toward other Asians and Westerners, and perceptions of Korean identity in relation to these Others. After exploring aspects of historical interactions, the volume addresses how the role and practice of translation and interpreting have recently evolved as a result of the development of digital technology, an increase in the number of immigrants, and changes in political and cultural dynamics in the region. It covers a range of historical and contemporary aspects, genres, and venues that extend beyond the common yet restrictive focus on literary translation and includes discussions of translator training and academic studies of translation and interpreting in Korea.

Confidence Culture Shani Orgad, Rosalind Gill, 2021-12-06. In Confidence Culture, Shani Orgad and Rosalind Gill argue that imperatives directed at women to love your body and believe in yourself imply that psychological blocks rather than entrenched social injustices hold women back. Interrogating the prominence of confidence in contemporary discourse about body image, workplace relationships, motherhood, and international development, Orgad and Gill draw on Foucault's notion of technologies of self to demonstrate how confidence culture demands of women near-constant introspection and vigilance in the service of self-improvement. They argue that while confidence messaging may feel good, it does not address structural and systemic oppression. Rather, confidence culture suggests that women, along with people of color, the disabled, and other marginalized groups, are responsible for their own conditions. Rejecting confidence culture's remaking of feminism along individualistic and neoliberal lines, Orgad and Gill explore alternative articulations of feminism that go beyond the confidence imperative.

Feminism and Sorority Digital World, 2025-02-24. Napoleon Hill was a renowned author and thinker who developed important concepts for personal and professional success. His fundamental ideas include the importance of self-discipline, self-confidence, self-motivation, focus, persistence, and positive thinking to achieve goals. He emphasized the importance of building solid relationships, dealing with challenges in a resilient way, and constantly seeking personal development. In summary, Napoleon Hill's teachings highlight the need for a positive and proactive mindset combined with diligent and strategic action to overcome obstacles and achieve success in various areas of life. In this e-book, some general tips for applying Hill's teachings for self-confidence, positive self-image, and goal achievement are provided. This study explores the intersection of feminist principles and the concept of sorority, drawing insights from Napoleon Hill's Smarter Than the Devil. While seemingly disparate, this analysis argues that Hill's emphasis on Master Mind groups, characterized by collaboration, mutual support, and shared vision, resonates with core tenets of feminist thought, particularly regarding collective action and empowerment. This paper examines how the dynamics of these groups, as described by Hill, can be interpreted through a feminist lens, considering issues of power, voice, and agency within collaborative environments. It further explores the potential of such groups to foster female solidarity and contribute to feminist goals The research concludes by mention your key findings e g highlighting specific parallels between Hill s principles and feminist ideals or identifying potential limitations or contradictions
