Millenarian Vision, Capitalist Reality Todd A. Diacon, 1991-08-29 Why did a millenarian movement erupt in the Brazilian interior in 1912 Setting out to answer this deceptively simple question Todd A Diacon delivers a fascinating account of a culture in crisis Combining oral history with detailed archival research Millenarian Vision Capitalist Reality depicts a peasant community whose security in economic social and religious relations was suddenly disrupted by the intrusion of international capital Diacon shows how a deadly triumvirate comprised of foreign capital state power and local bosses engineered a land tenure revolution that threatened smallholders subsistence sparking rebellion among the Contestado peasants Unlike most analysis of millenarian movements Diacon combines a material analysis with a careful exploration of the movement's millenarian ideology to demonstrate how a particular combination of external and internal forces produced a crisis of values in the Contestado society Such a crisis Diacon concludes gave a special power to the millenarian vision that promised not only outward reform but inner salvation as well This work offers a significant contribution to the literature of millenarian movements popular religion peasant rebellions and the transition to capitalism in Brazil unprecedented detail Soviet strategies Comintern activities and the role of the Communist party in Spain from the early 1930s to the end of the civil war in 1939 Drawing on a very broad range of Soviet and Spanish primary sources including many only recently available Payne changes our understanding of Soviet and Communist intentions in Spain of Stalin's decision to intervene in the Spanish war of the widely accepted characterization of the conflict as the struggle of fascism against democracy and of the claim that Spain's war constituted the opening round of World War II The author arrives at a new view of the Spanish Civil War and concludes not only that the Democratic Republic had many undemocratic components but also that the position of the Communist party was by no means counterrevolutionary
