

Ahir bhairav अहिर भैरव

Raga Ahir bhairav may be a mixture of Bhairav and the ancient but now rare raga Ahiri or Abhiri.¹⁷ According to Dilip Chandra Veda, it is a relatively recent raga, however. Since the melodic movements in the lower half of the octave manifest the distinctive features of Bhairav, this sober but appealing raga is included in the Bhairav group.

Pa and Sa are sometimes avoided in the ascent. The descent can be direct, especially in the fast passages, but often it is expressed as $S \dot{S} D P M$, $G M^{\circ} \backslash B \sim S$, with a slight oscillation on flat Re to express the character of Bhairav. The melodic movements of Ahir bhairav are rather complex and oblique. Ma and Sa are important notes, but Ga, Pa and Dha are also frequently sustained.

Ahir bhairav is a typical uttarangi raga, which means that the emphasis is on the upper tetrachord. Although there may be impressions of Kafi, the image of Ahir bhairav can easily be maintained with the characteristic passage $S D S \backslash B - S$.

Time: At daybreak.

Reading Asian Art and Artifacts Paul Nietupski, Joan O'Mara, 2011-04-04 This book begins with the understanding that in addition to its aesthetic qualities Asian art and material artifacts are expressive of cultural realities and constitute a visible language with messages that can be read interpreted and analyzed Asian art and artifacts are understood in their contexts as windows into cultures and as such can be used as a powerful pedagogical tool in many academic disciplines The book includes essays by scholars of Asian art philosophy anthropology and religion that focus on objects held in ASIANetwork schools The ASIANetwork collections are reflective of Asian societies historical and religious environments political positions and economic conditions The art objects and artifacts were discovered sometimes in storage and were sometimes poorly understood and variously described as fine art curiosities souvenirs and markers of events in a school s history The chapter authors tell the stories of the collections and the collections themselves tell stories of the collectors This volume is intended for use in many disciplines and its interpretive structures are adaptable to other examples of art and artifacts in other colleges universities and museums An online database of some 2000 art objects held in the ASIANetwork schools collections supplements this book
