Handbook of Research on Schools, Schooling and Human Development Judith L. Meece, Jacquelynne S. Eccles, 2010-06-10 Children spend more time in school than in any social institution outside the home And schools probably exert more influence on children s development and life chances than any environment beyond the home and neighbourhood The purpose of this book is to document some important ways schools influence children s development and to describe various models and methods for studying schooling effects Key features include Comprehensive Coverage this is the first book to provide a comprehensive review of what is known about schools as a context for human development Topical coverage ranges from theoretical foundations to investigative methodologies and from classroom level influences such as teacher student relations to broader influences such as school organization and educational policies Cross Disciplinary this volume brings together the divergent perspectives methods and findings of scholars from a variety of disciplines among them educational psychology developmental psychology school psychology social psychology psychiatry sociology and educational policy Chapter Structure to ensure continuity chapter authors describe 1 how schooling influences are conceptualized 2 identify their theoretical and methodological approaches 3 discuss the strengths and weaknesses of existing research and 4 highlight implications for future research practice and policy Methodologies chapters included in the text feature various methodologies including longitudinal studies hierarchical linear models experimental and quasi experimental designs and mixed methods

Life Span Human Development Carol K. Sigelman, Linda De George, Kimberley Cunial, Elizabeth A. Rider, 2018-09-01 The third edition of Life Span Human Development helps students gain a deeper understanding of the many interacting forces affecting development from infancy childhood adolescence and adulthood It includes local multicultural and indigenous issues and perspectives local research in development regionally relevant statistical information and National guidelines on health Taking a unique integrated topical and chronological approach each chapter focuses on a domain of development such as physical growth cognition or personality and traces developmental trends and influences in that domain from infancy to old age Within each chapter you will find sections on four life stages infancy childhood adolescence and adulthood This distinctive organisation enables students to comprehend the processes of transformation that occur in key areas of human development This text also includes a MindTap course offering with a strong suite of resources including videos and the chronological sections within the text can be easily customised to suit academic and student needs
