

Making a New Friend

At the park, Sam noticed Lily sitting alone on a swing, looking sad. Gathering his courage, he approached her and asked if she wanted to play. They kicked a ball back and forth, laughing and enjoying the sunny day. Soon, they were sharing snacks and stories about their favorite games. Sam learned that sometimes, a simple greeting can spark a beautiful friendship.

Moral: A small act of kindness can change someone's day.

125 True Stories of Amazing Animals National Geographic Kids, 2012 Animals Children's Reading Choices Martin Coles, Christine Hall, 2002-01-04 Children's Reading Choices discusses the reading habits of children aged between 10 and 14. The book reports the findings of the Children's Reading Choices project conducted by the authors from the University of Nottingham and the largest national survey of children's reading choices since the 1970s. The book includes reports and discussion on girls and boys reading preferences and the differences between their reading habits, the place of series books, teenage magazines and comics in children's reading, the most popular authors and titles at different ages, purchasing habits, and library use.

The Children's Literature Selection Handbook, K-8 Christie Kaaland, 2025-08-21 Offering future school librarians, teachers, and working librarians an alternative to lengthier textbooks on children's literature, this engaging book introduces readers to the most important genres and current conversations in the field while leaving them time to read children's literature directly. As school librarian and teacher certification programs become more abridged, students require succinct textbooks that still provide a valuable introduction to the field. Working librarians need reference books that allow them to make good selections for their collections. Students and professionals will appreciate The Children's Literature Selection Handbook K-8 because it offers a needed overview of the field while allowing for plenty of time to read children's literature. Author Christie Kaaland's conversational tone speaks directly to readers, and the book offers students a pathway to engage with literature directly and effectively scaffold their learning. Beginning with an introduction to standard literary fiction genres, including a discussion of literature trends and children's reading interests and needs, the chapters turn to the most important genres: fiction, biography, folk literature, picture books, informational texts, poetry, and graphic novels. A focus on book series, a deep discussion of graphic novels, the inclusion of global literature, and review sources for selection and information on publishers and the publishing industry set this timely book apart from others in the field. Reader voices add perspective and charm. This compact and engaging book is the perfect companion to the vast wealth of children's literature that future teachers and school librarians will read during their professional preparation and share with children and youth as working librarians.
