COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course provides an introduction to the principles of historical linguistics. We will examine the concepts of linguistic reconstruction and language change through a problem-solving approach.

Topics to be addressed include: (i) genetic relationship; (ii) sound change and the Comparative Method; (iii) language contact and borrowing; (iv) subgrouping.

Data will be drawn from a variety of languages, with a focus on the languages of the Austronesian language family.

TEACHING METHODS

This course covers major topics in historical linguistics through a series of readings, lectures, discussions, and 'hands-on' experience with comparative analysis.
