The Chipko Environmental Conservation Movement In India:

Opportunities and Challenges for Women Leaders in Environmental Management Aquino, Jr., Perfecto Gatbonton, Jalagat, Jr., Revenio Cabanilla, Justin, Mercia Selva Malar, 2023-11-24 Our planet is facing the prospect of environmental catastrophe resulting from decades of reckless human activities. The ongoing degradation of the Earth's natural resources, climate change, pollution, and habitat destruction have created an urgent global crisis. The responsibility for addressing these challenges has been a significant issue since the 1972 International Conference on Human Environment in Sweden. Despite widespread acknowledgment of the issues at hand, insufficient efforts have been taken to safeguard our fragile ecosystems and secure a sustainable future for generations to come. Opportunities and Challenges for Women Leaders in Environmental Management is a groundbreaking book meticulously crafted for academic scholars seeking answers to the most pressing environmental questions of our time. This book reveals the pivotal role women are playing as environmental stewards, providing a ray of hope in the face of environmental turmoil. Through data, empirical studies, and narratives, this book spotlights the remarkable contributions of women worldwide in environmental activism, advocacy, research, education, and innovative strategies. Their unwavering commitment to energy conservation, responsible waste management, and the preservation of ecological parks and wildlife is both inspiring and transformative. Textbook of Forest Science Asim Kumar Mandal, Abel Nicodemus, 2025-02-14 This textbook presents the latest knowledge on various disciplines of forestry science presented in 39 chapters. Each chapter presents a reappraisal of theory and practice, applications, and future scope of subject area. It is a single point reference for updated information on both traditional and contemporary areas of forestry. Some of the disciplines covered in the book are biotechnology, remote sensing, forest certification, forest management, forest hydrology, climate change, plantation and urban forestry, biodiversity, and genetic resources conservation, wildfire science, seed science, and quality seed production and ecosystem services. The book primarily serves as an advanced textbook of forest science for students of forestry at all levels. The science of forestry is receiving much more attention of the researchers, policy makers, and public than ever before because of growing awareness of vital importance of forests in amelioration of world environment. This book is a comprehensive collection of existing and new methods, including outcome and future possibilities of forest science. This book benefits undergraduate and postgraduate students, professional researchers, teachers, practicing foresters, and policy planners. The book also encourages the public to understand the relevance of forest science to overcome the contemporary economic and environmental challenges. Environmental Activism and Global Media Pardeep Singh, Bendangwapang Ao, Dr Medhavi, 2024-05-07 This scholarly work discusses the historical, contemporary, and prospective dimensions of environmental activism and its intersection with global media. It provides a comprehensive view of the pivotal role played by the media in shaping awareness concerning environmental challenges and catalyzing actions to address them. Drawing upon the insights of an interdisciplinary cohort of scholars, the book systematically examines the diverse aspects of the nexus between media and environmental activism Chapter contributions establish the foundational framework for comprehending how media as a whole lend support to activism delineate the historical trajectory of environmental activism the construction of narratives within the political economic and social domains of society scrutinize the function of mass media within the context of globalization digitization and social media and elucidate how governance structures influence the environmental activism process By introducing readers to the basic narrative in environmental activism globalization and media this book will be an important source of information for researchers academicians and students engaged in various interdisciplinary studies linked to media environment and activism
