Curious Researcher Ballenger,Branscomb,1998-08-01 The Curious Researcher Bruce P. Ballenger,2001 The Curious Researcher 3 e offers a fresh approach to research by reminding readers that curiosity is still the best reason for uncovering information and ideas This author provides ample proof that the research process like the writing process can be full of rewarding discoveries Using a variety of examples from both professional writers and students this book shows that good research and lively writing do not have to be mutually exclusive Readers are encouraged to not only develop sound research and analytical skills but to examine ways to bring their writing to life even though they're writing with facts. Though The Curious Researcher stands apart from similar texts because of its motivational qualities, it also features full explanations of the technical aspects of the research paper. MLA citation conventions are given extensive treatment and APA standards are also explained in the Appendix. For writers of research papers

Curious Researcher Bruce Ballenger, Branscomb, 1998-10-01      EBOOK: How to Write a Thesis Rowena Murray, 2017-02-16

Moving beyond the basics of thesis writing, the book introduces practical writing techniques such as freewriting, generative writing, and binge writing. Issues such as working out the criteria for your thesis, writer's block, writing a literature review, and making notes into a draft are also covered. Useful summaries and checklists help students to stay on track or regain their way. Learn how to develop good writing habits, overcome writer's block, understand the assessment process, get the most from your supervisor. New to this edition: New visual map of your thesis to track your progress through the writing process. Advice on using social media productively and avoiding potential distractions during your writing. More support on writing in a second language. Using writing retreats and micro groups to benefit from writing alongside others. New material on how to finesse your thesis by back-revising at the final stages. Advice on writing schedules for part-time students. New chapter summaries to aid reflection and give pointers for next steps.

Introduction to Graduate Research and Writing Nancy Engler, Lynn Oborn, 1998      Writing for Academic Journals 4e Rowena Murray, 2019-11-16

This comprehensive guide to writing journal articles addresses all the stages and recurring challenges from targeting a journal to dealing with reviewer feedback. Drawing on many years of running Writing for Publication workshops, Murray explores not only style and structure but also behaviours and emotions. As a key component of both research courses and careers, this timely text also addresses the struggle to make time for high-quality academic writing and how to ensure a writing-life balance. Examining a variety of approaches relevant to many different academic disciplines, this core text demystifies and defines writing practices and makes this form of high-stakes academic writing seem manageable. Writing for journals has never been more competitive, and writers, researchers, practitioners, and students need expert guidance on productive practices and ways of maintaining focus and motivation, which Murray provides. This latest edition is completely updated and more relevant than ever for clinicians, practitioners, and students. This book was already a classic, but the update makes it even more useful. From finding time to write, doing a short literature review, and identifying scam journals, Rowena Murray provides an excellent, concise, and accessible companion for writing academic journal papers, which is appropriate for both students and working academics. Associate Professor Inger Mewburn, Director of Research Training, The Australian National University, Australia. Rowena Murray has approached publishing in a journal with scientific rigour. Following this book's recommendations will make it impossible to find a convincing excuse for failure to publish. She herself writes with a high level of artisanal skill; this book is fast-paced, stylish, and highly readable. Her own extensive experience in supporting journal article writers tempers this book with the credibility of a seasoned veteran. Best of all, there is a wealth of wisdom here in advising on how to publish Murray is also advising on how to live a satisfying life as a writer Associate Professor Susan Carter University of Auckland New Zealand In Writing for Academic Journals 4th edition Rowena Murray's voice is direct down to earth and wise Drawing on a depth of practical experience as both published author and writing teacher she conveys the message that yes publishing in academic journals is demanding but it's also very possible And that once you are successful there is still much to be learned from reading books like this one and hanging out with others in writing groups and workshops To that end the book is a trove of tips and techniques helpful to all who pursue the challenging craft of good academic writing Barbara Grant Associate Professor in the School of Critical Studies in Education at the University of Auckland New Zealand and author of Academic writing retreats A facilitator's guide      Writing For Academic Journals Murray, Rowena, 2013-09-01 This book unravels the process of writing academic papers It tells readers what good papers look like and how they can be written      Writing in Social Spaces Rowena Murray, 2014-08-13 Writing in Social Spaces addresses the problem of making time and space for writing in academic life and work of the professionals and practitioners who do academic writing Even those who want to write who know how to write well and who have quality publications report that they cannot find enough time for writing Many supervisors are unsure about how to help postgraduates improve their writing for thesis and publication Whilst the problem does present through concerns with time it is also partly about writing practices academic identities and lack of motivation This book provides a research based theorised approach to the skill of writing whilst retaining a link to writing practices and giving immediate yet sustainable solutions to the writing problem It supplies new theory and practice on socializing writing in progress and writing with others exploring the alternation of conscious and unconscious internal and external processes in academic writing whilst in a social grouping Applying social processes in the writing process Using case studies and vignettes of writing in social spaces to illustrate the theory in practice This book is a valuable resource for academics scholars professionals and practitioners as well as researchers at all stages of their career and in all disciplines      How to Write a Thesis Rowena Murray, 2011-05-01 Printbegrnsninger Der kan printes op til 5 % af bogens samlede indhold
