Countering Mission Drift in a Faith-based Organization Peirong Lin, 2019-09-27

This book presents the case study of World Vision as a useful contribution in the discussion of mission drift a common phenomenon facing faith based organizations Mission drift has been categorised as a drifting away from the organization s founding mission purpose and identity Practical theological interpretation is undertaken in this case study There are four phases involved in this approach design collection analysis and recommendation In the first phase design the key terms of the dissertation are explicated One key model used is the identity formation model of organizations In the second phase collection the actual collection of the empirical research is documented Empirical research was done in two separate locations where World Vision worked in Papua New Guinea and Nepal In the third phase analyzing the findings of the empirical research are analysed firstly using the identity formation model and more normatively through the use of the normative practice model In the final phase recommendations are made in light of the analysis These recommendations are also framed using the identity formation model with content and process recommendations given

Qualitative

Interviews. Conducting interviews as a means of qualitative study. Main types of interviews Leo Decher, 2017-11-22 Seminar paper from the year 2016 in the subject Communications Research Studies Enquiries grade 1 7 Friedrich Alexander

University Erlangen Nuremberg language English abstract With regard to educational income and school development technological progress offers increasing possibilities in the fields of knowledge transfer and classroom management This is especially reflected in so called iPad classes that were initiated at the Realschule Those classes are part of a pilot experiment in the Bavarian mainstream system According to the school s website the desired advantages are amongst others fast availability in group work periods reinforcing medial competence individual learning and quick access to educational contents from the internet I came to visit such classes during my first student internship in 2013 Now that a couple of years have passed I aim to find out in how far teachers and pupils think that it had been a good choice for them to take part in this project Therefore I am going to conduct interviews with both a participating teacher and two students The interviews will cover advantages and disadvantages that come to the interviewees minds concerning the daily use of tablet computers at school as well as ideas the respondents have to keep improving the educational contact with innovative learning tools such as iPads This research will be prepared conducted and evaluated on a qualitative level

Negotiating Patriarchy and Gender in Africa Ngozi Edeagu, Egodi Uchendu, 2021-08-26 A 2022 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title Negotiating Patriarchy and Gender in Africa Discourses Practices and Policies examines the entrenchment of patriarchy in Africa and its attendant socioeconomic and political consequences on gender relations The contributors analyze the historical and modern ways in which gender expectations have enabled women in African societies to be systematically abused and marginalized from unpaid labor to poor representation in decision making areas Exploring regions such as rural Uganda the suburbs of Zimbabwe the Gold Coast South Africa and Nigeria contributors incorporate a wide range of academic theories and disciplines to establish the need for improved policy implementation on gender issues at both the local and national government levels in Africa
