African American Studies Talmadge Anderson, James Benjamin Stewart, 2007 There is an ongoing debate as to whether African American Studies is a discipline or multidisciplinary or interdisciplinary field Some scholars assert that African American Studies use a well defined common approach in examining history politics and the family in the same way as scholars in the disciplines of economics sociology and political science Other scholars consider African American Studies multidisciplinary a field somewhat comparable to the field of education in which scholars employ a variety of disciplinary lenses be they anthropological psychological historical etc to study the African world experience In this model the boundaries between traditional disciplines are accepted and researchers in African American Studies simply conduct discipline based an analysis of particular topics Finally another group of scholars insists that African American Studies is interdisciplinary an enterprise that generates distinctive analyses by combining perspectives from d European Economic and Political Survey

Has American Political Rap Changed with Obama?* Eike Rüdibusch, 2010-05-13 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2010 in the subject Communications Media and Politics Politic Communications grade 1 0 University of Siegen language English abstract Nearly 400 years after slavery in the United States US begun an African American actually a man of half African and half American descent has probably changed the United States forever During his election campaign he promised hope and change His words inspired millions all over the world not only in the US Just by campaigning Obama changed the world's views on the United States Moreover and this will form the thesis of this paper Obama has changed Hip Hop as well With every step taken in African American history considering being brought to America as the first and Obama being elected president the most recent one African American music has changed Until Obama appeared the changes have mostly been stylistically afterwards it mostly changed content wise The first chapter of this paper will deal with the first 300 years of African American music in the US and will present an overview of the developments in African American music that lead to Hip Hop as we know it The second chapter will be about the first decade of Hip Hop the 1970s I will describe the circumstances that led to and accompanied the evolution of Hip Hop with a special focus on Hip Hop's birthplace New York City Chapter three will deal with the rebellious and radical era of political rap in the 1980s coined by rap groups such as Public Enemy and Boogy Down Productions In chapter four I will discuss the 1990s and its so called political nihilism Gangsta rap was and is generally seen as nihilistic and nonpolitical But having a closer look at it I will show that Gangsta rappers also reflected the political circumstances around them and therefore following the traditions of African American music of the preceding decades to criticize those who vice versa criticized them In addition to the commercially successful gangsta rap I will also discuss so called conscious rap of the 1990s The years under the George W Bush administration will be the topic of the fifth chapter Bush's inner and foreign policies 9 11 and the disaster of Hurricane Katrina led to a whole new focus of political rap The final chapter will deal with Obama and Hip Hop's reaction towards him as a person as a political figure and his politics Rap has let its skepticism behind in order to publicly endorse and support a presidential candidate Vice versa Obama represents a new political style towards Hip Hop
