Part 1 - Time management

Herman
I'm a morning bird. I always try to be at work one hour earlier to check emails and get everything I need to do ready for the day. When everybody else starts coming in, I feel certain that I'm up to whatever is needed. Some people say I'm a workaholic, but this is not true. I also leave one hour before everybody else, knowing I have done my best and having the full evening to relax and unwind. I've tried to follow the same timetable my colleagues have, but I just didn't feel the same way.

Cora
I took a course last year on time management. They said the best thing to do was to make a list of things you need to do, and then prioritise them. And that's just what I do now and it works perfectly for me. I allocate the tasks distributed along the day, leaving empty slots for interruptions and things that might just come up unexpectedly. I focus on his lesson for an hour or so here and a half
