INTERNSHIP REFLECTION

On my internship at Immaculada Concepcion College, I was excited at first because I would experience working together with others and learning something new. Then when I'm on the site, my mentors started to give me a task, which is I need to organize all the documents of the college students and I had to scan the documents needed, do some photocopies, and I like doing sign the student's documents for Unifast because it's look me like a professional and I'm glad that my mentors appreciated my job every time I finished the task early.

I achieved my goals during my internship because I quickly finished the jobs I was asked to do. Since often times I had no task to do, I was getting bored and frustrated, because I felt like I'd not been an asset at that time.

During my days I had a good time, but I didn't get to do much, which was, I feel sad. Because I was not able to train to be equipped for my future career job. But I realized and learned something. I've realized that being kind to myself and continuing to learn even in small things, and it's been continued to remind me to be thankful and appreciated for every little thing.

My internship developed my character, even my supervisor and mentors didn't always see me every time. I like helping my co-interns and I chose to be a tool to use so that the hours when no one gave me a job would not be wasted. I also get the privilege of building my confidence little by little by communicating with them.

I've made sure that all my hours have been completed. I love the way my mentors treat me and they are good mentors to take time to explain things when I don't understand that is what the mentees need from their mentors.

And I like my site where I'm on duty, even though I haven't learned a huge thing in my job. I have learned a lot, especially in developing and building my character and personality. I'm glad that my school had this kind of opportunity to accept interns, even though we're still in a pandemic.

For me, character and personality are also important to a person's growth and progression and to the workplace because you are going to work with different people that have a different character and personality. For you to communicate effectively and efficiently, you need to show them your kindness, honesty, and loyalty to get attached towards the organization that you belong to.
