Think With Socrates An Introduction To Critical Thinking:

Think with Socrates Paul Herrick, 2015 Brief yet comprehensive Think with Socrates An Introduction to Critical Thinking uses the methods ideas and life of Socrates as a model for critical thinking It offers a more philosophical historical and accessible introduction than longer textbooks while still addressing all of the key topics in logic and argumentation Applying critical thinking to the Internet mass media advertising personal experience expert authority the evaluation of sources writing argumentative essays and forming a worldview Think with Socrates resonates with today s students and teaches them how to apply critical thinking in the real world At the same time it covers the ancient intellectual roots and history of the field placing critical thinking in its larger context to help students appreciate its perennial value Author Paul Herrick incorporates original sources from newspapers a variety of media and philosophical writing along with engaging interludes featuring selections from Plato s dialogues A Companion Website at www.oup.com/us/herrick offers resources for students and instructors

Teaching for Christian Wisdom Samy Estafanos, 2018-08-20 In many ways Christian education in the Presbyterian Church in Egypt was deeply influenced by public education in Egypt One of the negative consequences of such influence is the significant lack of developing and using critical thinking as a basic element of the process While multiple factors educational and theological contribute to forming it this problem manifests itself in many ways The present research deals with the lack of critical thinking as a central problematic reality of the Christian education process in the Presbyterian Church in Egypt In order to illuminate and address this problematic situation Richard Osmer s understanding of Christian education as practical theology is used to bring into dialogue American philosopher psychologist and educator John Dewey and reformer and theologian John Calvin In light of this dialogue not only the lack of critical thinking but also multiple other dimensions of the problematic situation of Christian education in the Presbyterian Church in Egypt are illuminated Lack of democracy lack of the use of experience lack of creative pedagogies lack of practical reason and lack of theology from the process are some of these dimensions Adapting Osmer s comprehensive approach to Christian education as practical theology Samy Estafanos proposes a holistic approach towards Christian education that aims at transforming education into a reconciling process

Ed. with Introduction, Notes and Index by F. C. Montague Thomas Babington Macaulay Baron Macaulay,1903 RECENT RESEARCH IN SCHOOL EDUCATION Dr. R. Udhaya Mohan Babu,Dr. K. Mohanasundaram,2023-11-29 This Edited book is intended to emphasize the recent research in School Education This book is edited according to base on school students based research This book contains many relevant issues in a learning situation in new strategies for learning and problem solving Therefore differs in a very qualitative way from many other books available on the same content All suggestions and reports of findings from teacher educators and student teachers will be acknowledged in this book Conversations with Critical Thinkers John Esterle,Dan Clurman,1993 Philosophy, Reasoned Belief, and Faith Paul Herrick,2022-06-01 This clear readable introduction to philosophy presents a traditional theistic view of the existence of God There are many fine introductions to philosophy but few are written for students of faith by a teacher who is sensitive to the intellectual challenges they face studying in an environment that is often hostile to religious belief Many introductory texts present short easy to refute synopses of the traditional arguments for God s existence the soul free will and objective moral value rooted in God s nature usually followed by strong objections stated as if they are the last word This formula may make philosophy easier to digest but it gives many students the impression that there are no longer any good reasons to accept the beliefs just mentioned Philosophy Reasoned Belief and Faith is written for philosophy instructors who want their students to take a deeper look at the classic theistic arguments and who believe that many traditional views can be rigorously defended against the strongest objections The book is divided into four sections focusing on philosophy of religion an introduction to epistemology philosophy of the human person and philosophical ethics The text challenges naturalism the predominant outlook in the academic world today while postmodernist relativism and skepticism are also examined and rejected Students of faith and students without faith will deepen their worldviews by thoughtfully examining the philosophical arguments that are presented in this book Philosophy Reasoned Belief and Faith will appeal to Christian teachers analytic theists home educators and general readers interested in the classic arguments supporting a theistic worldview The Creative Impulse Dennis J.
